

Dallas seniors host class members at dance

The Irem Temple Country Club was the setting Sunday, April 16, for a senior semi-formal dance hosted by 21 senior girls. A buffet was served followed by music for dancing by the Phoenix. Chaperones for the evening were faculty members and parents.

Hostesses were Laura

Pilletts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P.J. Pilletts. She wore a creamy off-white halter gown with spaghetti straps and matching jacket. Her escort was Vincent Sodrosky.

Julie Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burke wore a deep blue small floral print gown with ragged hemline and solid teal blue extending to the floor. The spaghetti straps tied at the shoulder. She was escorted by Kevin Bonawitz.

Lori Saba, escorted by Jerry Hogan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Saba. She wore a white strapless quiana gown featuring accordion pleats which fell softly from an empire waistline. Amy Scott, whose escort was Paul Casterlin, wore a full length brown quiana gown with thin shoulder straps and matching jacket buttoned at the waist. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Scott.

Lynn Borton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Borton, wore a light blue form fitting gown with spaghetti straps accented with a long sleeved jacket gathered at the waist, with neckline and front edged with sequins. Her escort was Ed Janosik.

Cory Zimmerman, escorted by Tony Lukasavage, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zimmerman. She wore a formal length gown of pale yellow quiana with V-neck and short cap sleeves and accented with self ribbon belt tied loosely in back.

Linda Overman, daughter of Mrs. Olwen Overman wore a sleeveless, jewel neck, princess-style gown of pink polyester crepe. A long flowing cape of sheer pink chiffon with colorful embroidered flowers was worn over the gown. Her escort was Don Merithew. Jody Barbacci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Barbacci, was escorted by Bert Brace. She wore an off-the-shoulder gown of white eyelet trimmed with pink and blue floral bouquet.

Judy Lemmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemmond, wore a pink cotten peasant style dress with flounced skirt. Her escort was Ken Charney.

Lynnette Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kupstas. She wore a light blue colonial style gown with v-neck and front laced closing. It featured short sleeves and ruffled hemline, and was accented with lace trim around the hem, sleeves and neck. Her escort was James Edwards.

Shelly Letteer, daughter of Mrs. Diane Leteet, was escorted by Mark Casaday. She wore a gown of sky blue antron with V-neckline. It featured a yoke of old fashioned lace with sleeves and waist having a blouson effect.

Sandy Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver, wore a light blue cocktail dress with a blouson top featuring braided straps and knife-pleated skirt. She was escorted by Paul Reinert.

Carol Ann Sosik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sosik, Jr., wore a white A-line gown with a deep bordered ruffle of multi colored flowers around the bottom of the skirt. Two pleated ruffles accented the top with a matching flowered border. The polyester spring gown tied at the top with two spaghetti straps. Her escort was Patrick George.

Junior High bands will present concert

On Friday evening, May 12, the Dallas Junior High Bands will present a public concert under the theme "Then and Now". About 100 student musicians will participate, performing music from classic compositions to present day movie and television themes.

Kadet Band of seventh grade will include a "Salute to Brahms" and a "Tribute to Scott Joplin", ragtime, among its offerings. Concert Band of eighth and ninth grade will run the gamut from an "Elizabethan Suite" to a medley of television commercials in the "Salute to Madison Ave."

The 20-piece stage band will offer big dance band styles of many hues in a special portion of the concert. Several small ensembles also will play selections. Combined bands offer the final segment of the concert.

A student matinee program and an exchange concert with the Tunkhannock Area band are also slated. On Saturday, March 29, the bands will play for the Little League opening ceremonies at 10 a.m.

'Auntie Bea and Her Bunnie'

presented for L-L special ed unit

A group of students from Lake-Lehman's special education unit will be the guests of College + Misericordia on April 28 for a special presentation of the college's Children's Theatre production, "Auntie Bea and Her Bunnies."

Each year, the college presents a benefit performance for area children's organizations, according to Technical Director Gener Garber. This year, the Lake-Lehman group was one of the first organizations to respond of the 22 invited. The college expects over 600 children to attend the special presentation, Garber said.

"Auntie Bea and Her Bunnies" has been adapted by Misericordia Players director Walter C.J. Andersen from the writings of Beatrix Potter. The production features characters and scenes created by Andersen and original music created by senior Sharon Rutolo of Harvey's Lake.

Public productions of "Auntie Bea and Her Bunnies" will be presented in Walsh Auditorium on April 21, 22, 23, 29, and 30 at 2 and on April 21 and 28 at 7:30. Tickets are available from the Theatre Arts office on campus.

HL boy gets trout limit and palomino

Vinnie Vespico of Harveys Lake caught a rainbow trout at 8:05 the opening day of trout season, then proceeded to catch his limit for the day while fishing with his uncle, Sam Bomba, at the lake.

On Sunday, Vinnie caught a 12 inch golden palomino for the second time in the past two years while fishing at the lake. Vinnie is the son of Vincent Vespico of Harveys Lake.

Sem car wash

The Wyoming Seminary senior class will hold a car wash Saturday, April 22, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the parking lot near the performing arts center. Cost is $1.50 per car. The proceeds go for senior class projects.
