Accused of Forgetting MOTHER!

A young Dallas man was accused of forgetting Mother's Day, May 14. After authorities questioned the youth it was learned the youth had placed his order of fresh cut flowers with J.B. Gallery Florist, 170 N. Memorial Highway, Shavertown, 675-1717.

The youth told authorities that after he had examined the plants, silk flower arrangements, hanging plants, Bouton butterflies and household accessories, he chose the FTD fresh cut flower arrangement.

The youth admitted that he also purchased a box of Gertrude Hawk candy and a Mother's Day card at J.B. Gallery.

The lad also told that J.B. Gallery makes deliveries to the greater Wilkes-Barre area and that he was sending flowers to his girl friend's mother.

It was advised that everyone make an effort to place orders as early as possible to assure a large selection and avoid embarrassing questioning.

J.B. Gallery Florist accepts major credit cards. They are open Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday until 4 p.m.
