Dallas girls lose district title to Mid

Dallas girls softball team lost all hope for the District II PIAA Girls Softball title last week when Midvalley scored three runs in the seventh to break a tied up 5-5 game and go on to win 8-5.

Midvalley went into the lead 1-0 in the second inning on an unearned run but the Dallas girls scored two runs in the third to go in front 2-1. Michelle Kravitsky started with a single in the first, errored in the second, sacrificed in the third, and singled in the fourth to cross the plate.

Midvalley runs in the lead.

In the bottom inning, Shaffer led off with a walk and Lou forced Williams third. Donna Rich hit a two run triple and Cindy Asby brought Richardson in with a single.

Midvalley tied the game in the sixth but broke the game wide open in the seventh. They scored three runs before Dallas stopped the rally.

Dallas were unable to score in their half of the seventh.

Donna Roberts did the pitching for the Dallas girls, striking out two.

Dallas borough opens recreation center

The Dallas Borough Recreation Center will officially open the summer season June 19 and will remain open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday until August 25. The playground is located on corner of Burndale

Road and Luzerne Ave. in Dallas.

Instructors for the summer include Jay Pope, Cindy Lefko, Laurie Hiller, Bill Flemming and Donna Shaffer.

Many activities are planned for the summer including an arts and crafts program, headed by Laurie Hiller.

Weaving, painting, clay modeling, soap carving and many more fun projects are offered to the youngsters. Many other programs are offered to the teens and adults, such as tennis, basketball, etc.

The tennis courts are open all day long.

The success of the center depends on the interest and participation of the community. Everyone is invited to attend.

Phils, Yanks tied in Horlacher

Centermoreland Phillies and the Orange Yankees are tied for first place in the Majors Division of the Bob Horlacher Memorial Little League at the end of six weeks of play. Both teams had records of 10 wins and two losses up to Monday and will meet tomorrow evening at 5:15 on the Centermoreland diamond with the winner gaining the edge for season honors.

In addition to having to play each, both teams had two other games remaining on the straight season schedule. Centermoreland had games remaining to be played against the third place Harveys Lake nine and fifth place Beaumont.

Orange was scheduled to meet more favorable competition, having games against last place Kunkle and fifth place Beaumont remaining.

Centermoreland's Phillies, defending champions, chalked up wins in both of its games last week, defeating Kunkle 30 to 2, on Tuesday and winning over Noxen, 8 to 1, in Friday's game. Joe Faux's hurling against Kunkle, combined with Tom Ash's homer and two triples by Rusty Faux highlighted the Phillies attack. Brian Evans fanned 10 Noxen batters and had a lot of help at the plate from Joe Gates, who homered and a triple by Rusty Faux. Marty Brobst homered for Noxen.

Orange Yankees stayed in the running for season honors by winning two games also against two tough opponents. The Yanks defeated Noxen, 14 to 8, last Tuesday, and closed out the week on Friday, defeating the third place Harveys Lake nine, 9 to 4. Joe Poplawski and Joe Kubiski were the winning hurlers for Orange. Sam Noone and Jim Patts hit for the circuit for the Yanks with Bo Dewey and Bob Poplawski getting triples. Kris Koole and Bob Rogers each had three hits in four trips for Noxen.

In other Majors Division games last week, Harveys Lake beat Beaumont behind Chris Steele's pitching and the hitting of Tony Javers, who had four hits in four trips, including a homer and two doubles, and Ryan Travers, who had a three-for-four day, including a double.

Jeff Crispell of Beaumont was credited with the win over Kunkle, 12 to 4, in a game that was moved up to Thursday from Friday because of the Beaumont School bus trip to the Philadelphia Zoo. Roger Bellas' homer for Beaumont highlighted the game.

Jaycees plan horse show

The Back Mountain Jaycees are finalizing plans for their 2nd Annual Back Mountain Horse Show to be held Sunday, Aug. 20, at the Lehman Horse Show Grounds, Route 118.

The Show will begin at 9 a.m. featuring divisions in Equitation, Hunters, Western and Walking Horses. It will be operated in accordance with the current rules of the American Horse Shows Association. John Marciano, Three Bridges, N.J., will officiate. Lloyd Longenecker, Mechanicsburg, Pa. will be steward.

Charles Kishbaugh is chairman of the show, assisted by Joe Dwinchick, Craig Tupper and Ron Post.

Boosters meet

The track team was the guest of the Lake-Lehman Booster Club last Thursday evening.

After the business meeting, a drawing was held for a side of beef. The winner was John Pomrienke of Burndale Road, Dallas.
