Century Club plans outing

The committee planning the annual King's College Century Club summer outing met recently in Dallas. A poolside meeting was held at the home of Robert Laux, president of the club.

The outing will be held on July 15 at 6 p.m. on the King's campus in Wilkes-Barre, on the Regina court. General chairman attending the planning session is State Representative Frank (the Big O) O'Connell of Kingston.

O'Connell was instrumental in the establishment of the club and is on the Founder's Council. The Rev. George P. Benaglia, CSC, was president of the college at that time and Nate Foreman, late Pomeroy's executive, was the president of the club.

Others meeting here today are Mrs. S. Idris Ley, Peggy Keck, Robert Kertulis Samuel DeSalvo and Robert Ell, executive secretary of the organization. The outing is open to members of the club and their friends.

Booster Club announces golf tourney

Mary Taylor and her staff from Mary Taylor's Beauty Salons of Trucksville and Dallas. Step by step application will be done on class members and their guests. Anyone interested in attending is welcome.

The demonstration will be in the church basement, 30 Butler St., Kingston. Refreshments will be served.

Ted Kostrabola, golf tournament chairman, has announced that the Dallas Area Booster Club will hold its annual golf tournament, June 26, at the Lehman Golf Course.

All reservations should be made by June 22 with Ted Kostrabola, 675-1047.

PFC Shultz participates in Palm Tree

Marine Private First Class Lawrence A. Shultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Shultz of Rt. 1, Box 168, Dallas, recently participated in exercise "Palm Tree 5-78" in the California desert.

He is assigned to Battalion Landing Team Two Slant Eight, based at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

Conducted at Marine Corps Air-Ground Combat Training Center, Twentynine Palms, Calif., "Palm Tree 5-78" tested the capability of a battalion landing team to deploy by strategic airlift and to provide realistic live-fire training. The exercise stressed coordinated air and artillery fire support for infantry units.

A 1977 graduate of Dallas High School, Shultz joined the Marine Corps in June 1977.

Phillies

Centermoreland diamond will pit the Farm teams from both communities against each other.

Then at 3:30 Saturday afternoon, Minors division teams of the Orange Yankees and the Centermoreland Phillies will tangle. It will be 'Booster Day' at Centermoreland, and sometime between games, the winners of 40 awards in the current fundraising of the league will be announced.

The 'piece de resistance' of the whole Little League program in both communities will come Sunday when four busloads of Farm, Minors, Majors and Teeners players from both communities will load four buses for a trip to Reading where the group will be guests at an Eastern League (Double A) game between the Reading Phillies, a farm team of the Philadelphia Phillies, and the Jersey City Skeeters. The bus will leave the Orange firehouse Sunday morning at 10:30. Some parents will accompany the boys as chaperones.
