

Library hours scheduled

The Noxen Elementary P.T.O. opened the Noxen Children's Summer Library on Monday, June 26 at 10 a.m. The P.T.O. wishes to thank Charles James, elementary principal, Mrs. Marjorie Cosgrove, elementary Librarian, and David Harris, Noxen elementary head teacher for their help in securing books for the library.

The Noxen Children's Summer Library consists of a large array of books for children who will be entering kindergarten through sixth grade in September. Older students are welcome to visit the library as many of the books may be of interest to them also.

The library is located at the home of David and Ellen Harris, 200 Tunkhannock Road, Rte. 29, Noxen. The hours are Monday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Anyone who wishes to donate children's books which are in good condition may contact Ellen Harris at 298-2349.

WORKSHOP—Mrs. William Burak, Trucksville, right, vice chairman, Advisory Committee of the Children and Youth Services Advisory Committee of Luzerne County, and Mrs. Claudia Stevens, Dallas, second from right, are joined by Mrs. Frank Carlsson, Hunlock Creek, extreme left, and Mrs. Oscar Parker, Forty Fort, in planning for a Child Abuse Workshop, June 21, between 9:30 a.m. and noon in the Gus Genetti Hotel, Wilkes-Barre. Mrs. Carlsson succeeds Mrs. Parker as chairman of the Advisory Committee, a group of volunteers dedicated to assisting the former Child Welfare Services unit in the delivery of services to children and youth in Luzerne County.

Kiwanis to assist with auction

Back Mountain Kiwanis held its regular meeting Saturday, June 24, at Mark

11 Restaurant with Robert Cartier presiding. Following the meeting, the paper drive was held with three quarters ton of paper collected.

William Coburn was presented with a special Kiwanis pin for recruiting the most new members. Vice-president Joseph McDonald left for the International Convention in Miami, Fla.

Members of the Back Mountain Kiwanis and Dallas Kiwanis Clubs will assist with parking of cars for the Back Mountain Memorial Library, July 7, 8 and 9.

The club will have a installation dinner for new officers and members on Sept. 30.

During the past week, Back Mountain Kiwanis members attended an inter-club meeting at Dallas Kiwanis, with a triple inter-club attending. Mike Diskin was the principal speaker. Whitey Porasky and Mike Diskin also attended the monthly meeting of the Back Mountain Council on Drug and Alcohol Abuse at Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas, on Thursday, June 22.

Children's Museum

Not another bummer summer

The Children's Museum of Northeastern Pennsylvania announces registration for summer classes for elementary school children. The classes begin July 10 and continue through August 17, and are offered in six one-week sessions.

Each class features an interesting way to give students practical understanding of everyday subjects, and to benefit from actual hands-on encounters.

The classes meet Monday through Thursday for a total of 90 minutes, and cover an entire spectrum from musical instruments to chemical experiments.

CLASSES:
"Out of the Ordinary"

Imagine illustrating a storybook or comic book based on characters and superheroes you create.

Time: 9 to 10:30 a.m. July 10-13 or Aug. 14-17.

"Free Lunch"

Prepare your own nutritionally complete meals from natural foods.

Time: 10:30 to noon.

July 10-13 or Aug. 14-17.

"Plop Plop-Fizz Fizz"

Students participate in wild and colorful laboratory experiments.

Time: 10:30 to noon.

July 17-20 or Aug. 14-17.

"Aztecs, Incas, and Mayas"

Children journey through three mysterious Indian civilizations by means of slide projectors, prints, and actual ancient artifacts.

Time: 9 to 10:30 a.m. July 17-20 or July 31-Aug. 3.

"Sound Lab"

Design and build your own musical instruments, and jam to the groovy sounds you have found.

Time: 9 to 10:30 a.m. July 24-27 or Aug. 7-10.

"Madison Avenue"

Develop your own advertising campaign for new projects, and attend corporate meetings with the "big wigs".

Time: 10:30 to noon.

July 24-27 or July 31-Aug. 3.

Classes are open to all children ages 6 to 10.

The Children's Museum is located at Market Street and Maple Avenue, in Kingston.

Bikes stolen

Two bicycles were stolen from parking places at Francis Slocum State Park, Kingston Township. Chief of Police Paul Sabol reports.

Taken were a butterscotch-colored 10-speed Sears bike owned by Ronald Ritts, 14, of 94 Grand Ave., Dallas, and a silver three-speed Huffy bike owned by Chris Yankovich, Bunker Hill Rd., RD 3, Wyoming.

Ritts' bike was taken from the area of the swim house on Saturday, and Yankovich's bike was taken from in front of the maintenance garage Tuesday.
