Back Country

Annual Fall Festival of East Dallas United Methodist Church will be held Saturday, Sept. 16, at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cragle and family of Tunkhannock spent Sunday with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Sickler and family of Carverton. The Sicklers observed their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday with open house.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Eaton of Orange, who moved into their new home recently. Mrs. Eaton, is the former Miss Nancy Scutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scutt of Hudson. Mr. Eaton, who is associated with Offset Publishers in Dallas, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everall Eaton, Jr. of Sutton Creek Road.

Mrs. Irma Goldsmith of Orange is a medical patient in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. Best wishes and congratulations are extended to Miss Judy Dana and Lewis Isaac, who were married Saturday in Carverton United Methodist Church by Rev. Paul Bauer, pastor. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dana of Carverton. Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Isaac, Sr. of Dallas.

Friends of William 'Bill' Hoover of Orange will be glad to learn his condition in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital at press time was reported as 'Good'. He was admitted to the hospital on Sunday as a medical patient.

Sincere sympathy is extended the family of Harold Harris, who passed away on Saturday. Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Metcalfe - Shaver Funeral Home. Interment was in Mt. Zion Cemetery. The Harris family had resided at Mt. Zion before moving to Kingston, N.Y. last fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Major of Centermoreland and their guest, Miss Ena Wium, of Paris, France, who has been visiting here the past month, have returned after a trip to Canada. Miss Wium will leave on Saturday for the return trip home. It is her second visit to Centermoreland in the past two years and she has made a host of friends in the area.

The 23rd annual chicken barbecue and auction of Centermoreland United Methodist Church was held Friday and Saturday on the church grounds and attracted large crowds both nights. A total of 1,120 dinners were served and this was a bit more than were served at last year's affair. Richard Brunges and Ralph Sands, the latter of Tunv khannock, assisted by other members of the church, kept the auction items moving at a good pace.

Mrs. George (Ola Mae) Schoonover, who served as coordinator for this year's benefit affair, has expressed thanks and appreciation to all those, who assisted in making the affair a success. Frank G. Williams, who was in charge of the auction, has expressed thanks and appreciation to the many donors, who donated items for the auction.

Flowers on the altar in Centermoreland United Methodist Church on Sunday were in loving honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Schild, and were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schild of Montoursville and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guilbeault. Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hall of Fitch's Corners, who have announced the birth of a daughter, Sarah Catherine (call her 'Katie') on August 7. The Little Lady weighed in at seven pounds, three ounces.

Flowers on the altar in East Dallas United Methodist Church for Sunday morning's service were presented by Mrs. Kathy Pacewicz in honor of the birthdays of her mother, brother and son. Mrs. Emily Davenport of Orange entertained members of the United Methodist Women of Dymond Hollow UM Church Monday evening.

A reminder - today is the day for the benefit rummage sale at East Dallas United Methodist Church. Sale hours are from 9 this morning to six this evening. The sale is being sponsored by members of the Ella Moore Class of the Church School. The sale also will be held tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of Bradenton, Fla. are renewing acquaintances with area friends. The Williams are staying with friends at Patterson Grove. Bob owned and operated the Village Grocery in Centermoreland before moving to Bradenton. Condition of Mrs. Fred (Kathryn) Eister of Wyoming was reported as 'fair' in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. She is the wife of Rev. Fred Eister, pastor of Wyoming United Methodist Church, and well known in the Orange-Carverton areas.

Because of threatening weather, the scheduled outdoor service of the three United Methodist Churches of the Carverton UM Charge was held in Carverton UM Church on Sunday instead of at Frances Slocum Park as originally planned. The service was largely attended. Rev. Paul Bauer, pastor of the Carverton UM Charge, conducted the service at which Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Sickler of Carverton renewed their marriage vows. The Sicklers observed their silver wedding anniversary on Tuesday, and marked the occasion with an open house at their home Sunday afternoon with about 80 friends and relatives in attendance.
