Bowling news

The week of Aug. 9 found the Farmers leading in the Summer League by five points in front of B-J's five.

No Names dropped four points to 2 Each whose M. Culver toppled the pins for 178-189 (529) to show the way. Old English five took all from Don's Sweeties paced by C. Smith's 487. B-J's blanked No Practice Balls and the Farmers shut out the Broken Drums. B. Cave hit the pins for 188 (484) and J. Ide hit a 518 series. The Honey Cones took four from Charlie's Angels. The Angels' B. Cyphers was high for both teams with 506. Rosie's Hookers gave up four points to the Raiders despite R. Radzinski's 195. The King Pins and Bikers divided evenly.

The previous week Don's Sweeties lost all to 2 Each with M. Culver giving the winning team 176. B-J's copped four from the Honey Cones led by J. Roan's 528 and B. Valvano's 170-179 (510). J. Lamoreaux rolled 170 for the Honey Cones. The King Pins picked up four points from the Broken Drums on a forfeit. No Names lost three points to the Farmers who had B. Cave's 176. The Old English took three from Rosie's Hookers. A. Pickering hit the wood for 179 and C. Smith knocked down pins for 192 (483). C. Molley posted a 520 series for the Hookers. Charlie's Angels made it three over the Bikers led by C. Kazokas' 518. C. Exharopoulos hit 172 for the Bikers. The Raiders picked up three points from No Practice Balls sparked by B. Casterline's 517 and B. Inhat's 172.

Aug. 16 was the final night of the league's bowling, with a report yet to come in.
