

POLICE REPORTS

Jewelry stolen

A Monday burglary in Dallas Borough resulted in the loss of a quantity of jewelry, Dallas Borough Police report.

Police said on Tuesday that the burglary took place sometime Monday between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. at a borough home. Taken was an unknown amount of jewelry. An exact description of the jewelry was not available.

Investigating is Chief Edward Lyons.

Charges filed

Charges have been filed against a juvenile who reportedly removed a light bulb from outside a "haunted house" in Dallas Borough.

According to Chief Edward Lyons, the juvenile was apprehended taking the bulb. Ptlm John Fowler has filed the charges.

W-B man cited

A Wilkes-Barre resident has been cited for leaving the scene of an accident.

Cited was Allan L. Major, 28, of 268 North Pennsylvania Ave., Wilkes-Barre. According to police, Major was traveling north along Route 415 in a 1973 Buick when he lost control on a curve and crossed over into the opposite lane.

There he reportedly struck a Volkswagen driven by Margaret L. Edwards, 41, of Box 38, Harveys Lake, approaching from the opposite direction.

Investigating is Ptlm. James Tupper.

Auto struck

A motorist who bent over to turn on his heater ran into the back of a vehicle ahead of him last Tuesday evening, according to Dallas Borough Police.

Police say that George R. Burk, 51, of 44 Willow St., Plymouth, driver of a 1975 Ford, was following another vehicle when he bent over to return on his heater and ran into the car ahead of him as it slowed to make a right turn into a driveway.

Driver of the car struck, a 1975 Chrysler, was Alfred Davis, RD 1, Box 169, Birdsboro. Investigating is Ptlm. Severn Newberry.

Head-on collision

A head-on collision on Carverton Road last Tuesday afternoon resulted in considerable damage to two cars and a section of guard rail, Kingston Township Police report.

Police say that Michael Bauer, 20 of 67 Radcliffe Road, Farmingdale, N.Y., and also of RD 2, Box 185A, Dallas, was driving a 1968 Pontiac west along Carverton Road when, according to Bauer, the car suddenly pulled left and crossed over into the eastbound lane.

There it struck head-on a 1973 Buick driven by Fred Morse, 76, RD 1, Box 9, Pittston. Morse told police he applied his brakes when he saw the Bauer vehicle coming.

Bauer continued on after the collision and struck a guard rail along the east-bound lane, damaging it. Both cars were towed from the scene.

Investigating is Ptlm. Gary Beisel.

Inmate arraigned

A Chase inmate is scheduled for arraignment this week before District Magistrate Leonard Harvey, Dallas, on charges of possession of a weapon or possible escape implement.

Set for arraignment is Joseph Ramirez, State Correctional Institute, Dallas (Chase), on charges that he was found in possession of an eight-inch piece of steel rod with one end sharpened.

The alleged incident occurred on Sept. 7. Prosecuting is Trooper William Koscenski, State Police, Wyoming Barracks.

Mailbox damaged

A Midway Manor resident's mailbox was knocked down by a car that fled the scene immediately, Kingston Township Police have learned.

H.R. Gardner, Jr., 48 Manor Drive, Midway Manor, told police that on Monday a car struck his mailbox, knocking it over and then leaving the scene. He said the car's trim was damaged and its window broken in the incident.

Shavertown man injured

A Shavertown young man was hospitalized Saturday morning following a violent two-car collision on Route 309, Kingston Township Police report.

Taken first to Nesbitt Hospital, Kingston, and then to Wilkes-Barre General was William J. Pearce, 17, of RD 5, Sutton Road, Shavertown. His 1977 Jeep was towed from the scene.

According to police, Joseph R. Stager, 30, of RD 5, Box 384A, Shavertown, was driving north along 309 in a 1978 Dodge truck when he was struck in the rear by Pearce.

The Stager vehicle then left the road, coming to rest on the berm. The Pearce auto continued northward after the collision, flipping over and coming to rest on the pavement.

Investigating is Sgt. William Pugh.

Deer causes accident

A deer running out onto Route 309 was the cause of a collision that damaged two vehicles Friday morning, according to Kingston Township Police.

Trucksville UM to hold bazaar

On Friday, Oct. 27 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Oct. 28 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., the United Methodist Women of the Trucksville U.M. Church will hold their annual bazaar at the educational building on Church Rd., Trucksville.

Among the many hand crafted items available will be bread flower arrangements, Christmas ornaments and decorations, gifts and toys for children, knitted and crocheted items and jewelry.

There will also be a table of homemade baked goods and candy. For those who would like a little refreshment, coffee and tea will be available, as well as a complete lunch and dinner menu.

A new feature this year will be the "Kids Korner". For just 10 cents per craft children three years and over (it is recommended that a parent remain with a child under three can enjoy making halloween masks, painting paper bags, making paper pictures and pet rocks, molding playdough and coloring at an easel. A drink and a cookie which the child can decorate himself will also be available. The hours of the "Kiddie Korner" are 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday and 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday.

The Trucksville U.M.W. is inviting everyone in the area to stop by at their building this Friday or Saturday morning. Leave your child at the "Kiddie Korner" where they will be under experienced adult supervision, and spend some time browsing leisurely through the bazaar.

Police report that Ben Baumgarten, 64, of Sterling Ave., Dallas, was driving a 1976 BMW south along 309 near Gorda's Sunoco station when he ran into a deer that had run onto the highway, hitting and killing it, and coming to rest on the roadway.

The Baumgarten vehicle was then struck from behind by a 1971 Dodge driven by Gus A. Shuleski, 18, of 232 West Center Hill Road, Dallas. Baumgarten's auto spun around and came to rest off the roadway on the opposite side. Shuleski's car ended up in the southbound lanes.
