Federated Women's Club plans Thanksgiving dance

The Dallas Area Federated Women's Club members are very busy these November days planning their "Thanksgiving Dance." After preparing their traditional dinners with all the trimmings at home on Thursday, they are looking forward to Friday and an evening of dancing and getting together with friends.

Mrs. William Davies, general chairman, invited all residents of the area to come and join the festivities.

A souvenir booklet is being prepared by the program committee for distribution at the dance. It will serve to commemorate the recent organization of the club. All monies raised by this booklet will be donated to the Back Mountain Library.

Mrs. Harry Bernardi, committee head, thanked local businessmen who are supporting this effort. The following members are assisting Mrs. Bernardi, Mrs. Jack Barbose, Mrs. William Davies, Mrs. Clyde Gramps, Mrs. Paul McCue, Mrs. David Perry, Mrs. Peter Quagletti, Mrs. Nicholas Riggi, Mrs. James Thomas and Mrs. Mark Umphred.

The Thanksgiving Dance will be held Nov. 24, at the Treadway Inn, Wilkes-Barre. Music for dancing will be provided by "Take Four." Reservations are made by calling 675-2252 or 675-0307.
