Goble to head Franklin Fire Dept.

Charles Goble of Centermoreland will head the Franklin Township Volunteer Fire Company for 1979. Goble was nominated for the presidency of that company at the November meeting in the Orange Fire Hall last week. He is unopposed for reelection and will succeed Phil Culver of Vernon, who is completing a term as president.

James Gilpin, also of Centermoreland, was nominated for the vice-presidency, also without opposition. Other nominees included Joseph Vodzak of Orange as secretary, and Ronnie Witkowski of Centermoreland, who was nominated without opposition for a second term as treasurer.

Contests for the fire company posts will be waged for the post of fire chief where Michael Fuller and Bob Appleby will be vying for the post. Appleby is serving as fire chief this year. In the only other contest to be voted on, four candidates were nominated for the posts of assistant fire chiefs. They are Art Owen, Michael Warman, Jack Roberts, Jr. and Joseph Vodzak. Election will take place at the December meeting.

Jack Roberts, Jr. was nominated for the post of delegates from the Franklin Volunteer Fire Company to the Back Mountain Firemen's Association. Alternate delegates nominated were Art Owen and Phil Culver. Nominated to the building and grounds committee were Mike Fuller and Ronnie Witkowski.

Nominating committee was composed of Mike Fuller, Richard Love and Jack Roberts, Sr. Present officers of the company are president, Phil Culver; vice-president, Charles Davis; secretary, Louis Bedford; treasurer, Ronnie Witkowski.

The fire company renders volunteer fire fighting service to residents of Northmoreland and Franklin Townships.

She is an active member of the Wilkes College Chorus, the Wilkes College Percussion Ensemble, the Senior Mozart Club, and the Music Educators National Conference.

Lisa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Robak, Plymouth and is also a graduate of Wyoming Valley West High School. She is a junior music education major at the college. She is a member of the Music Educators National Conference, a junior representative of the Commuter Council and is accompanist to the Wilkes College Chorus.

The program will include works by Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Mendelssohn, Gershwin, Copland, Dvorak, Rachmaninoff, Schubert, Sibelius, Scott, Stavenhagen and Muczynski.

The concert is open to both campus and community free of charge.

Segrave-Daly assigned to recruiting duty

John Segrave-Daly son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Segrave-Daly of 66 Perrin Ave., Shavertown, has been selected for the Navy's hometown recruiting assistance program.

The program is part of the Navy's effort to better inform men and women exactly what Navy life is all about. Enlistees from the community share their first-hand knowledge of basic training and experiences as new recruits with their civilian counterparts.

Segrave-Daly will be available to answer questions about the Navy at the recruiting office located at 19 North Main St., VA Building, Wilkes Barre, until Dec. 15.

Segrave-Daly is a 1978 graduate of Dallas Area High School. Since enlisting in the Navy in June 1978, he has completed recruit training at Great Lakes, Ill., and Mess Management Specialists school at San Diego, Calif. where he learned to prepare and serve food in the Navy's dining facilities, aboard ships and at shore stations in the United States and overseas.

Cease completes Benning class

Pfc. William I. Cease Jr., whose wife, Jeannie Marie, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. William I. Cease, live at 28 E. Franklin St., Shavertown, recently completed seven weeks of advanced individual training at Fort Benning, Ga.

He was taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad.

Cease entered the Army in September, 1977.

He is a 1977 graduate of West Side Area Vocational Tech. High School.
