Heart Fund names gifts leaders

Mrs. L. E. Jordan and Jean C. Hauck have been named vice chairmen to the Special Gifts Campaign for Wilkes-Barre and surrounding areas, for the 1979 Heart Fund Drive.

The announcement was made by General Campaign Chairman Frank Pasquini, and Special Gifts Chairman Mrs. R. Spencer Martin, Jr.

Mrs. Jordan is a graduate of Allentown High School.

In the past, she served as the president of the Luzerne County Dental Auxiliary; Grand Regent of the Catholic Daughters in Shavertown; president of the Dallas Women of Rotary; four years president of the Dallas Women's Club; two years secretary for the Luzerne County Federation of Women's Clubs; and secretary for four years for the Roatry International Student Exchange Program in eleven districts.

Mrs. Jordan has also served as publicity chairman for a local library auction, and is active with the Dallas Fall Fair.

Dr. and Mrs. Jordan live in Trucksville. Dr. Jordan is an oral surgeon with an office in Wilkes-Barre. The Jordans have five children: Lynne, Margaret, Jeris, Corita and Paul.

Jean C. Hauck, 4 Riverside Drive, Wilkes-Barre, has a B.S. from Newark State College in Art Education.

She has served as an Art Supervisor in the Wyoming Seminary Day School and the Tunkhannock Area Schools. Previously she was an executive member of the architectural office of Lester W. Hauck, AIA, Wilkes-Barre.

She is a charter member and founding participant of the Trinity Presbyterian Church in Dallas; a board member of the League of Women Voters in Wilkes-Barre, and a Republican Committeeperson. In 1976 she was a candidate for the Wilkes-Barre Area School Board.

The Special Gifts Campaign is a type of solicitation that seeks substantial donations from prospective donors.

The Heart Fund Drive will be attempting to reach a goal of $85,000 this year.
