The 57th wedding anniversary observance for Mr. and Mrs. Russell Race of Orange on Sunday turned out to be 'quite a day' for the couple. 'Their day' opened with attendance at the Easter Sunday service in Center Moreland UM Church where other members of their family had arranged to have 57 beautiful red roses placed on the altar in their honor for a colorful display. Mrs. Race had previously requested that gifts be omitted - because 'there really isn't anything we need' and the eight children and grandchildren responded with the display of red roses, a family favorite.

Following the church services, Mr. and Mrs. Race were honored at a family dinner at the Orange fire hall with 60 members of their family in attendance. The day was made happier when the couple received telephone congratulations from Mrs. Race's two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Huey and Mrs. Etta Dietz from Miami, Fla.

Easter week end was observed in the Back Country with special services in area churches; Easter egg hunts for the children and family dinners in many Back Country homes with relatives from near and far coming in for the week end.

One of the big attractions was the outstanding display of Easter rabbits and bunnies in the large front yard at the home of Mrs. Cloe Faux in Vernon where scores of bunnies in all colors but mostly pink decorated the front yard, while others occupied a small boat in the front yard at the Faux residence. The display caught the eye of many passing motorists going to and from church or just out for a ride in the country.

Church services in area churches were well attended. Attendance was good at services in St. Frances Cabrini R.C. Church in Carverton and its sister parish, Blessed Sacrament R.C. Church in Centermoreland, where the pastor, Rev. Father Thomas Croghan was assisted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Andrew J. McGowan, and Rev. Father William J. Mullen of St. Pius Academy at Dalton.

The Easter morning sunrise service at East Dallas United Methodist Church for members and friends of the Centermoreland United Methodist Church was well attended. Rev. David Westlake, pastor of Skinners Eddy United Methodist Church, was the guest speaker.

Easter egg hunts at Mt. Zion and Centermoreland were enjoyed by youngsters of those areas. The hunt at Centermoreland, sponsored by the MM's class of Centermoreland UM Church, was set back from the scheduled Saturday date to Monday morning because of the weather.
