Dividend

A 65-cent dividend was declared at the May board meeting of First Eastern Bank which was held at the bank's main offices in Wilkes-Barre.

The announcement was made by Richard M. Ross, Jr., president and chief executive officer, who said the dividend is payable July 2 to shareholders of record June 14.

Police

Defiant trespass?

A hearing was set yesterday for a Dallas man on charges of defiant trespass, public drunkenness, and disorderly conduct in connection with a weekend incident.

Arrested was George Dobson, PO Box 126, Dallas. The hearing was to be held by District Magistrate Earl Gregory, Shavertown.

According to Dallas Township Ptlm. Clark Van Orden and Dallas Borough Ptlm. Severn Newberry, Dobson refused to leave private premises when asked, made a drunken disturbance in public, and made unnecessary noise when the officers arrived.

He was temporarily lodged in Luzerne County Prison under $500 bail.

Prowler at Mercy Ctr.

A Wilkes-Barre man was sent to the Luzerne County Prison over the weekend when he was reportedly discovered at night in the Mercy Center of College Misericordia, Dallas.

Steven Craft, 53 River St., city, will have a hearing on consideration of charges of criminal trespass and loitering and prowling at night before District Magistrate Earl Gregory, Shavertown, at 8 p.m. today.

Craft reportedly was told by a security guard at the college to leave the area but did not. Mercy Center is a residence for nuns of the Order of Mercy.

Bail was set at $500. Investigating was Dallas Township Ptlm. Douglas Lamoreux.

Vehicles collide

Two vehicles were damaged Saturday evening when a station wagon went out of control on a curve along Huntsville Mountain Road and struck an oncoming car, Jackson Township Police report.

According to police, Nicholas Mazur, Jr., RD 4, Dallas, was driving north when he failed to negotiate a curve, crossed the roadway, and collided with a car driven by Richard Zollner, 145 Vine St., Plymouth, approaching from the opposite direction.

No injuries were reported. Investigating was Ptlm. Burt Balliet.

Charged after accident

A Shavertown man is set for a hearing today before District Magistrate Leonard Harvey, Dallas, in connection with an accident involving charges of driving under the influence of alcohol.

Free on his own recognizance under $500 bail is Ted Nevolas, Box 63, RD 7, Shavertown. Lehman Township Police arrested him following a collision on Mountain View Drive last week with the unattended car of Robert Tabor, 73 Lee Park Ave., Wilkes-Barre.

Chief Thomas Kane investigated.

Assaults guards

A Chase Correctional Institution inmate has been scheduled for a hearing tomorrow before District Magistrate Leonard Harvey, Dallas, in connection with a reported attack upon two guards at the prison two weeks ago.

Herman Hawkins, Jr., will be considered on two counts of assault by a prisoner, two counts of simple assault, and one count of possessing a weapon or implement of escape.

Hawkins reportedly kicked guard Warren Forba in the groin, punched guard David Wilde in the head and face, and was found to have a weapon in his possession.

Trooper Charles Casey, Pennsylvania State Police, Wyoming, is prosecutor.

Memorial services begin Jackson events

Memorial services sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Jackson Township Volunteer Fire Dept. will be held at the Fire Hall Honor Roll Monument Site, Saturday Afternoon, May 26, at 4 p.m.

The Rev. Herbert Nahas of St. Mary's Syrian Orthodox Church and the Rev. Robert Harris, pastor of Idetown, Lehman and Jackson Twp United Methodist Church, and Capt. David C. Hoffman of the 402nd M.P. Army Reserve Unit will conduct the service.

Dallas Legion plans parade

Dallas American Legion will sponsor the 44th Annual Memorial Day Parade and Services, Monday, May 28.

The parade will begin at the Daddow-Isaacs Post Home at 9 a.m. and proceed to the honor roll at the center of Dallas Borough where Commander Edward J. Lyons will give brief opening remarks. The Rev. William Cusick, pastor of Gate of Heaven Church, will deliver the invocation and honor roll prayer.

Following a selection by the Dallas Senior High School Band, a memorial wreath will be placed on the honor roll by a Boy Scout, Girl Scout, and one boy and girl Little Leaguer. These four children will lead the Pledge of Allegiance.

Following Taps, the line of march will re-group and proceed to the Woodlawn Cemetery where Rev. Douglas N. Akers, pastor of Dallas United Methodist Church, will offer a memorial prayer.

After a selection by the Dallas band, Anthony Marchakitus, Lake-Lehman School assistant superintendent, will be the guest speaker. Benediction will be delivered by Rev. Akers followed by a salute to the veterans by the Legion Firing Squad led by John George.

Parade Marshal is Gus S. Shuleski.

Guard are: Ron Schall and Michael Kasko-Riflemen; Ray Jones-Saber; Jason Harding-Side-arm; Frank Kutz-American Flag; Paul Glogowski-State Flag; Albert Swietzer-Canadian Flag; Gary Shaw-Kentucky Derby Flag; Vince Grose-United Nations Flag; Dan Long-Trumpeter.

The memorial wreath, donated by the Ladies' Auxiliary, will be delivered by a Girl and Boy Scout to the hands of Capt. David C. Hoffman, who will place the floral piece at the base of the Memorial Monument. Mrs. Hazel Fielding, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, vice-pres. Mrs. Caroline Esser, and Mrs. Irene Kasko Preslipski, program chairlady, all served in the arrangements.

Girl and Boy Scout Units in attendance will be; Cub Pack 241 of Lehman with Den Mother Mrs. Connie Miroslaw as leader; and members of Lehman Brownie Troop 658 also in attendance.

The Jackson Township Fire Company Parade will commence at 5:30 p.m. and will include all the above-named units in addition to various police and fire units from the Back Mountain Area. The one-mile parade will terminate at Konefal's Picnic Grove on Chase Road where refreshments will be available.

The Fireman's Bazaar at Konefal's will continue through late Saturday Night, May 26th, and all day Sunday, May 27th.
