

Doebler and Ostrum wed at Sunbury

Miss Robin E. Doebler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Doebler, 253 Twelfth St. Sunbury, was married recently to William F. Ostrum, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Ostrum, Jr., 234 Memorial Highway, Shavertown and grandson of Mrs. Andrew Cherup, 60 Poplar St., Plains.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by The Rev. Glenn T. Sullivan in Grace Lutheran Church, Sunbury.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was attired in a white formal-length gown of soft knit which featured silk venice lace adorning the Queen Ann neckline, cap sleeves and raised waistline. Her full wateau back extended from the shoulderline into a chapel train trimmed in silk venice lace. Her headpiece was pearled silk flowers which held her pencil edged silk illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses accented with blue and yellow buttercups.

Miss Mary Lou Gurney, Jonestown, was maid of honor. She wore a formal-length gown of light blue quiana featuring a round neck and a long ruffle flowing from the neckline. Miss Jamie Ann Neidig, Northumberland, neice of the bride was flowergirl. She wore a long dress of white silk pleated organza with a round collar, long sleeves and yellow and light blue ribbons around the waist. They carried bouquets of blue forget-me-nots, yellow daisies, baby's breath, accented with light blue ribbons and wore combs of matching flowers in their hair.

Robert L. Casselberry, Dallas, was best man. Ushers were Gary Ostrum, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Compton, Syracuse, N.Y. The mother of the bride chose an original formal-length gown of grey quiana with a grey chiffon coat printed with pink and white flowers.

Mother of the groom wore a Designer gown of pink organza featuring crystal pleated butterfly sleeves and tunic top. Grandmother of the groom wore a Designer gown of apricot silesta with a V-neckline accented with a clip and featuring split sleeves.

A reception was held at the Country Cupboard, Lewisburg, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Long Beach Island, N.J.

The bride is a graduate of Shikellamy High School, Sunbury and Bucknell University. She is employed by The Logan Corporation as an executive secretary.

The groom graduated from Dallas High School and Bucknell University. He is an electrical engineer with American Electric Power, Appalachian Power Company. They are residing at 918 10th St., Huntington, W. Va.
