Carol Marker to speak to Lake women

Carol Marker of New World Design will speak at the Dec. 6 meeting of the Harveys Lake Women's Service Club. Her topic will be "How to Inexpensively Decorate Your Home for the Holidays." The Job Corps Chorus will also be present.

The club's drawing netted $708 with 77 per cent of the club members participating. The money will be used to furnish baskets of food to needy elderly persons in the Back Mountain area.

Bicentennial books entitled "Historical Album of Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley in Luzerne County, Pa., 1729-1976" are available through Mrs. Leo Mohen of Oak Hill, Dallas.

A home energy checklist is available from Mrs. Raymond Garinger, Harveys Lake.

Mrs. Beverly Ide, education chairman, encourages a visit to the Back Mountain Library to see the country store collection of miniatures. She also suggests watching channel 44, Fridays, at 9 p.m., for "Pennsylvania Issues Effecting All of Us."

NEW PHYSICIAN--Rural Health Corporation of Northeastern Pennsylvania, 116 South Main St., Wilkes-Barre has announced the appointment of Dr. Ernest R. ## Grossman re-elected president

The first annual meeting of the Economic Planning and Development Council of Pennsylvania (EPDC) was held in Harrisburg on Nov. 19. Howard J. Grossman, executive director of the Economic Development Council of Northeastern Pennsylvania (EDCNP), was elected president for a second term; Louis A. Vidic, Southwestern Pennsylvania Economic Development District, was elected vice president; Dennis E. Robinson, Susquehanna Economic Development Association Council of Governments, Lewistown, was elected secretary; and George McKelvy, Capitol Region Planning and Development Agency, Harrisburg, was elected treasurer.

The organization was established in September, 1978 for the purpose of coordinating the operation of economic development and planning regions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on a statewide basis. It has been organized to undertake projects of a multi-region or statewide nature and serve as an organization for exchange of ideas among statewide organizations.
