

Performers wanted at Penn State

Singers, dancers, acrobats, all kinds of talented people are wanted by the Performing Arts Club at Penn State-Wilkes-Barre.

The club will present a Coffee House on the campus in Lehman on Friday, Jan. 19, and it is looking for performers to entertain at the event.

Persons or groups interested in participating in the Coffee House should contact Dr. Carole L. Weisz, faculty advisor to the group, by calling 675-2171.

The Knights will go to Troy this Saturday to compete in that school's eight team tournament. They will remain idle during the holiday season and open their league schedule on Jan. 6.

Lake-Lehman will host the annual junior high school tournament, Dec. 29, with bouts starting at 10 a.m. and continuing throughout the day.

Knights 2nd in tournaments

Lake-Lehman's Black Knights took second place in two tournaments during the past two weeks.

Coach Shorty Hitchcock's matmen were edged out of the team title by two and a half points in the Montgomery tournament by Hughesville.

The Black Knights copped three firsts, three seconds, two thirds and a fourth in taking the runnerup spot.

Darren Barbacci took the title at 105-lb. and 112-lb. Kevin Bonham placed second at 112.

Rick Bonomo at 119-lb. copped first place in his weight class by outwrestling last year's regional champ, Mike Baker of Hughesville, 5-3. Joe Parsons came in second at 132-lb. and Bernie Janusz placed second at 138.

Tracy Slocum placed third at 145-lb. and Dave Borys came in fourth at 155. Dave Wolfe managed a third place spot at 185-lb. and the Knights Mike Leskowsky cinched the heavyweight title with two pins and an 8-4 decision in the final bout.

Rick Bonomo was named "Outstanding Wrestler" of the tournament.

Last Saturday the Knights came in second behind the Tunkhannock Tigers in the Tunkhannock Tournament. The Lake-Lehman matmen garnered two firsts, three seconds and a third in claiming second place in the eight-team competition.

Joe Parsons at 126-lb. defeated a two time district champ 7-0 in the finals for the first place title in his class and Heavyweight Mike Leskowsky pinned his three opponents to take a first and earn the "Most Pins" trophy.

Placing second were 105 Darren Barbacci, 112-lb. Kevin Bonham and 132-lb. Ron Swingle who lost to a two times district champ in the final bout. Bernie Janusz at 138-lbs. came in third in his weight class.

Teams participating in the tournament with Tunkhannock and Lake-Lehman were GAR, Elk Lake, Valley View, North Pocono, Pittston Area and Mountain View.

GAR came in third followed by Elk Lake, North Pocono, Mountain View, Valley View and Pittston Area.

Dallas hosts holiday tourney

Dallas Senior High School Holiday Basketball Invitational Tournament will open Thursday, Dec. 27, at 6:30 p.m., with Lackawanna Trail junior varsity playing the Dallas junior varsity. At 8 p.m. the Lackawanna varsity will play the Dallas varsity.

On Friday, Dec. 28, the Wyoming Area junior varsity will meet the Tunkhannock junior varsity and at 8 p.m. Wyoming Area varsity will play the Tunkhannock varsity.

On Saturday, Dec. 29, the winning junior varsity teams will play for the championship at 5:30. Varsity consolation game will be played at 7 p.m. followed by the game for the championship at 8:30 p.m. The tournament will be P.I.A.A. sanctioned and all P.I.A.A. rules will be enforced. Officials will be arranged for by Gerald Stinson, Dallas athletic director.

To keep the JV competition on an equitable basis, the varsity roster of

Knights have firm hold on 1st place

With one week remaining in the first half of dart league action at the Dallas American Legion, the Knights tightened their grip on First by winning three games from the slowly disappearing Hawks.

Skin Wesley saw his Warriors move into third place all alone while Graboski's Bootleggers tail the leaders by four games much of the Knight's success is due to Capt. Bergevin and his sharp shooting. Bergevin had high series with a 39-30-37, 106. High game was D. Derhammer with a 40.

Rounding out the 30-plus games were Derhammer, 33-30-40; T. Derby, 36-22; J. Yenason, 34-30; L. Graboski, 33-30; J. West and J. Apple, 37; H. Wesley Sr., 32; D. Eddy, 31; J. Thomas and W. Stanton, 30.
