Leonard Munoz was reported as somewhat improved at Lankenau Hospital in Philadelphia as the Post went to press. Leonard spent several days during the Christmas holidays with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Carlos Munoz of Centermoreland and had a setback when he returned to the hospital. He has been hospitalized at Lankenau Hospital since September, 1977.

Worshippers at the morning services Sunday morning in the three United Methodist Churches that comprise the Centermoreland United Methodist Charge at East Dallas, Dymond Hollow and Centermoreland, had the pleasure of hearing Miss Yvonne Phipper as guest soloist.

Miss Phipper, who resides at Tannersville,

Pa., is a music teacher and graduate of Messiah College. She was a weekend guest of Rev. and Mrs. Carlos Munoz and family of Centermoreland.

Best wishes are extended to Miss Leslie Wolfe of Carverton, who returned yesterday to resume studies at Shippensburg State College after spending the holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Parrish. Leslie made the girls' varsity basketball team at Shippensburg in her freshman year. Her sister, Miss Lynn Wolfe, who is employed by UGI at King of Prussia, also spent the weekend at home.

Friends of Mrs. David (Betty) Weaver of Centermoreland will be glad to learn she is coming along nicely at home following a stay at Tyler Memorial Hospital in Tunkhannock.

It's also nice to report that Richard Judge of Centermoreland continues to show improvement at home. Dick underwent heart surgery recently in Scranton's Mercy Hospital.

Condition of Miss Nancy Goble continues to improve at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where she has been a patient about three weeks following injuries received in an automobile accident at Orange.

Kathy Weaver also continues well on the road to recovery at home following injuries in a recent accident. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Weaver of Centermoreland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parrish of Carverton have returned after several days with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Parrish of Laurel, Md.

Choirs of the three United Methodist Churches that comprise the Carverton UM Charge will rehearse this evening—at Carverton at 6:45; Orange at 7, and Mount Zion at 8.

Administration boards of the Carverton UM Charge will meet Monday evening at 7:30 at the Orange UM Church. All board members are asked to attend.

Friends of Howard Earl of Carverton will be glad to learn he is coming along slowly at the Veterans Hospital in Wilkes-Barre where he recently underwent surgery.

The Rev. Dr. Allan Cease of Carverton returned yesterday after attending a three-day Convocation on Ministry at Pocono Manor. Rev. Dr. Cease is pastor of the Carverton United Methodist Charge.

Choir of East Dallas United Methodist Church will rehearse Saturday evening at 7:30 at the church.
