Former resident co-author

Dr. Mark David Jackson, former Upper Merion resident and Swoyersville resident and currently on the research staff of Bell Laboratories, Chicago, and Dr. James L. McClelland, University of California, San Diego, have co-authored a research study titled "Processing Determinants of Reading Speed."

The project was supported by grants from the National Science Foundation and National Institutes of Health. The results of the study, which appeared in the "Journal of Experimental Psychology: General 1979," supported the conclusion that one skill allowing fast readers to capture more information from each reading fixation is faster access to letter codes from print.

Jackson, a graduate of Upper Merion Area High School and Swarthmore College where he was awarded Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma XI, and outstanding athlete honors, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Jackson of 263 Jasper Rd., King of Prussia. The Jacksons were former residents as Mrs. Jackson is the former Dorothy Hazinski of Watkins St., Swoyersville and Dr. Jackson formerly of Owen St., Swoyersville.

Dr. Mark David received his Ph.D from the University of California and is married to Katherine Buttolph of Vestal, N.Y.

Showcase sets 'Chambermusic', 'The Feast'

Showcase Theatre will present two one-act plays, "Chambermusic" and "The Feast," on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, with repeat performances on the following weekend, Jan. 25, 26 and 27, according to an announcement made by Sylvia Sabol, Showcase Theatre President.

Church Hall on the campus of Wilkes College, Wilkes-Barre, will be the site of the six performances. The building is located behind the Eugene S. Farley Library, corner South Franklin Street and South Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Curtain time will be 8:30 p.m. each night, except Sundays, one hour earlier.

Director for the two one-act plays is Robert Walker, Kingston, who stated that "Chambermusic," by Arthur Kopit, is a type of black comedy about eight "flakey" women trying to keep their affairs straight. "The Feast," by Dan Wright, centers on the lunch hour of two construction workers, and imparts to one the power of imagination and illusion. Walker added that "The Feast" is listed as one of the ten great one-act plays by Bantam World Drama Publishing Company.

Tickets are available in advance by writing or calling Mrs. Charles F. Hensley, 146 Madison Street, Wilkes-Barre. Tickets also will be available at the door of each performance at Church Hall.

Cast members for "Chambermusic" include Linda Sipple, Jean Flynn, Lynnette Lisses and Judith Fried-Kingston; Sylvia Sabol, Tom Roberts, Rose Ann Simkoski, Sophia Rodzon and Bob Leidigh-Wilkes-Barre; and Gordona L'Dera-Wapwallopen.

Cast members for "The Feast" are Thomas Holton and Jeff Silverman of Wilkes-Barre and Ray L'Dera from Wapwallopen.
