Karate, judo club begins at Y

Damon Young, health and physical director, is announcing the Greater Wilkes-Barre YMCA karate and judo club which begins a new series of classes on Jan. 29, to last to March 13. Classes meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Self-defense will develop and teach you to have a feeling of security through physical fitness and unarmed self-defense. Just as importantly, Karate and Judo will provide peace of mind, a sense of self discipline, and a sense of self confidence.

Training begins with simple motions of posture, flexibility and strength. Training progresses into action forms of continuous attack and defense.

As co-ordination and strength develops students are up graded in rank and given advanced instruction on techniques.

Class Begins: January 29-March 13, 1980, or March 25-May 15, 1980.

Class Times: Tuesday and Thursday 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Class Fees: $35 for Non Members (includes basic membership) Free to Full Privilege members. Call or stop in to register or ask questions.

Dallas seeks English teacher

Dallas School District will have a professional vacancy on its educational staff of the Dallas Senior High School for an English instructor, effective Feb. 29 for the remainder of the school year. The instructor must be certified in English.

Anyone interested in the position should contact Gerald Wycallis, curriculum office, as soon as possible but no later than Feb. 1.

Power students get award

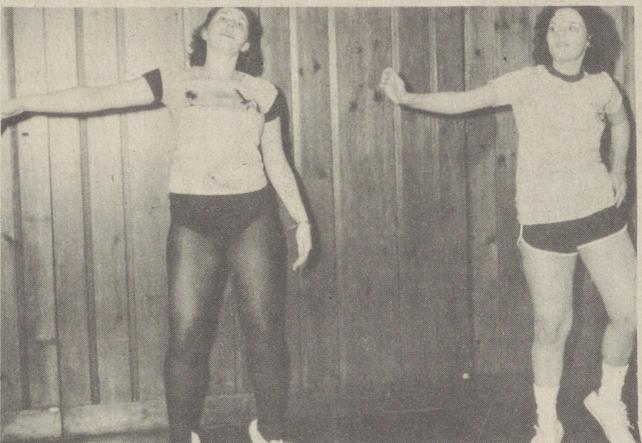

Dallas Senior High School power technology students have received a certificate of merit from the editors of "Mechanix Illustrated" magazine. The students received the commendation from the editors for their excellent craftsmanship in their workshop projects. The award will be presented in an upcoming issue of the magazine.

Russell Owens, instructor of the power technology program, has been successful for the past year and a half. The program has been very successful with the students. This last award is one of three received this year.

The students completed a custom-made motorcycle, four student motorcycles and restored 25 cars for the program.

Edgar R. Hughes, high school principal, congratulated the students for their outstanding performance.

An angry man is again angry with himself when he returns to reason. — Publius Syrus.

DANCERCISES—You may have heard the course referred to as "Dancercises" or "Aerobic Dance", whatever you call it, anyone who enjoys any type of rhythmic movement will love this course at the Wilkes-Barre YMCA. Class schedules provide day and evening classes available to fit your schedule: Session I Feb. 4 to March 28, and Session II April 7 to May 30. Class I meets Monday, Wednesday from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.; Class II, Monday, Wednesday from 6 to 7 p.m.; Class III Tuesday and Thursday from 6 to 7 p.m.; Class IV Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. For information call Damon Young at the Wilkes-Barre YMCA at 823-2191. Fun runs resume

The runs are held on the Back Mountain campus at 10 each Saturday morning and are available to the general public at no charge. The runs are supervised by experienced runners at the college and include physical check-ups before actual running takes place.

"Fun Runs" are for both the novice and the experienced runner with distances set accordingly.

Stretching exercises are held in the college gym first, followed by running distance from 1/4 miles to 4 miles around the Misericordia campus.

Back Mt. mat club

The Back Mt. Wrestling Club's elementary wrestling team scored eight pins and overpowered the Hanover young matmen by a score of 60-15 on Sunday afternoon at the Hanover gym.
