Mounts lose, tie for second

Dallas cagers built an early 12-7 lead in the first four minutes and then let up only to be outscored by GAR 10-2 for the remainder of the first quarter to give the Grenadiers a 17-14 lead at the end of the first period in the GAR 65-60 win over the Mounts last week.

The second period saw the Dallas deficit go to 12 points after three minutes

John Shaffer, Andy Manusky and Bob Besecker went into the lineup to rest three of the starters and managed to cut the Grenadiers lead to five with only two seconds to go until half time.

GAR's Walker threw a 40 foot desperation shot at the buzzer and was fouled by Bob Besecker. He picked up two points on the foul and the technical called by the official on the offending player when he grabbed his head in

The Mounts came out for the second half with fire in their eves opening with a Jim Thomas jumper and several times closed the gap to one point but each time the season big three of GAR, Walker, Francisco and DeMichael, would set up the offense and wait patiently to go inside to pull away. The Grenadiers lead opened to 12 points in the final period but the Mountaineers continued to press and cut the lead to 65-60.

Dallas lost three starters on fouls, Jobson, Weir and Brennan, in the fourth quarter.

"All our players saw action in the contest," said Dallas Coach Clint Brobst. "GAR went with all five starters the entire game with the exception of a one minute substitution in the final quarter. "Our J.V.'s gave the packed house something to cheer about in their contest, taking the GAR JV's into overtime before falling victim 55-48."

Walt Weir led the Dallas boys with 20 points before fouling out in the final period. Scott Keller hit 15, three of them points from the foul line.

The win dropped the Mounts to second place with a 4-2 record.

Mounts end streak

"Our girls played an almost perfect game against GAR," said Dallas Girls Basketball Coach Kit Karuza. "They all played very well and did a good job on defense. Kim Kretchmer did a beautiful job on defense and Renee Young played a good game."

Mounts The Lady stopped GAR's winning streak by whipping the Hilltoppers 52-39 on the city school's court. Dallas' Clare Cotter led the offense with 12 points connecting for six baskets from the field. Renee Young put in four from the court and hit one for one from the foul line for nine points and Kretchmer had eight points, two of them dumped in from the free stripe. Colleen Leaf added five to aid in the winning total.

Dallas girls jumped out to an early first quarter lead and never fell behind in the game although the GAR girls outscored the Mounts in the final period.

exciting right down to the wire," said Knight Coach Rodger Bearde about his team's 64-63 win over Wyoming Seminary last

"We took a six point lead late in the game but we made some costly turnovers which could have cost us but our defense shut them out. Near the end we came up with several key steals.

"I don't think we played as well defensively as we could have, however. Their court could have had a lot to do with it.

"Our kids shot quite well and we put on a rally which gave us a lead. Seminary out-rebounded us-they have a pretty good team. Their guards are fast. I believe our conditioning paid off for us in the game."

Lake-Lehman's Dave Penkrot paced the Knights to the win as he scored 29 points, 11 of them coming from the foul line. His teammate Ed Lozo connected for 21

With less than 10 seconds remaining in the game, Penkrot connected for both ends of a one-andone shot to give the Knights their edge.
