Parents observe Title I classes

Parents of the Lake-Lehman School District are reminded that a classroom observation Day will be held in the ESEA Title I reading and math classes on March 12 in the Junior High School building and on March 14 in the Lehman-Jackson and Ross buildings. Hours for visitation will be 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. charge of registration and refreshments. Mrs. Eileen Sgarlet is chairman of the Lehman-Jackson-Lake Noxen PAC.

Florence Campbell, Mrs. Mary Alice Lukasavage, Mrs. Margaret Manzoni, and Mrs. Pearl Race.

Chairman of the junior high school PAC is Michael Toole. Mrs. Susan Garren and Mrs. Peggy Grey are also members of the council.

Kalashofski shows drawings, sculptures

Dallas resident Ralph G. Kalashofski opened a special exhibit of his drawings and sculptures at College Misericordia last Sunday in a show that will be held at the college through March 23.

The exhibit, housed in the Art Gallery, includes a number of experimental drawings that explore new techniques in collage, cutout work, and sewing, as well as a series of bronzes executed by Kalashofski while studying at the Foundry, S.U.N.Y., Binghamton.

The sculpted pieces are comprised of figurative works of women "who have touched my life." One piece, "Alice," is a tribute to the late Alice Welsh Jenkins, an artist who lived and worked in Kingston. Other pieces of sculpture reflect the experimentation exhibited in the drawings.

In discussing his work, Kalashofski points out his "joy in exploring the possibilities of uniting idea with material. To begin with just a flicker, a passing thought, a mental image that comes to me as I am running and to carry that image into a physical presence in some material...that is the joy of my existence."

Kalashofski's show at Misericordia will be open to the public at no charge from 1 to 4 each day of the exhibit. The Art Gallery is located on the fourth floor of the college's Administration Building.

4 Dallas students attend region chorus

Florence H. Sherwood, choral director at Dallas Senior High School, announced that four students will attend the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association (PMEA) Region IV Chorus Festival at Tunkhannock High School March 13 through March 15. Dr. Terrance Anderson of Wilkes College will be guest conductor and Albert Purdy, host director.

The local students qualified in the auditions held at District 9 Chorus for the PMEA Region IV Festival.

Wendy Barid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baird, Trucksville, placed first in Alto I. Wendy also represented Dallas High School at the PMEA All-State Chorus.

Linda Akers, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Akers, tied for first place in Soprano II.

Robert Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robinson, Dallas, and Matthew Hoidra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hoidra, Trucksville, placed in the Tenor I section. Robinson performed in the PMEA All-State Chorus in Pittsburgh.

David Orehtsky, Tenor

I, and Lisa Luksic, Alto II, qualified as alternates. Miss Luksic was third representative to the PMEA All-State Chorus.

The students will register and rehearse Thursday morning. Auditions for All-State and national events will be held Thursday afternoon and evening.

Later the students will be the guests of families in the Tunkhannock area. All day rehearsals on Friday night will be capped by a dance and party. Final rehearsal will be Saturday morning followed by a banquet.

The concert, open to the public, will be at 2:30 p.m. in the Tunkhannock High School auditorium. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Region IV consists of schools from Intermediate Units 16, 17, 18 and 19, extending north to the New York border, west to Central Pennsylvania, south to Northumberland County and east to the Pocono area. There will be 160 voices in the chorus, 10 for eight voice parts from District 8 and the same number from District 9.

Dallas is in District 9 which makes this a very select chorus of top performers.

Penn State Wind Ensemble in concert

The Pennsylvania State University Symphonic Wind Ensemble will present a concert on Monday, March 17, at 8 p.m. in the Lake-Lehman High School Auditorium.

The concert is jointly sponsored by Penn State-Wilkes-Barre and the Lake-Lehman Band Parents Association.

The ensemble is conducted by Smith C. Toulson, who teaches clarinet at Penn State-University Park. A graduate of the University of Illinois, with a B.A. in music, Toulson received a master of music degree from Yale University.

The Penn State Wind Ensemble is now completing its 13th year. Toulson says, "A wind ensemble and a band use many of the same instruments. Yet the two groups differ in size and, thus, in the way they work."

The 40 members of the Penn State Symphonic

Wind Ensemble are university students representing a wide variety of academic and professional interests. The group performs an average of four concerts each academic year.

Tickets for the performance at Lake-Lehman High School will be on sale at the door, or may be purchased from any member of the Lake-Lehman Band Parents Association. Tickets can also be purchased from Diane Hunt, assistant to the dean of student affairs at Penn State-Wilkes-Barre.

Band sells Easter flowers

Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors Association has announced that its annual Easter flower sale is now in progress. Available are Lilies, Azaleas and Mums. Orders are being accepted by all band members until March 21. Flowers will be delivered on Saturday, March 29.
