Jr. Women announce winners

Dallas Junior Woman's Club held their annual craft contest on Feb. 24 at the home of Suzanne Artman. Jo Carol Buckley was contest chairman.

In 1893, East Stroudsburg State Normal School was established as a two-year teachers' training institution in Monroe County. The Normal School eventually grew to become East Stroudsburg State College which now has a wide variety of curricula and graduate programs.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. Betty Challis of the Nuthatch and her craft instructor, Mrs. Esther Samsel, and Mrs. Pat Cigarski of the Mud Hut.

Twelve club members participated by entering crafts in 18 different categories. First, second and third place ribbons were awarded as follows: Crochet-Original-first, Ann Brinola; Crewel-first, Maryann Storz; second, Jo Carol Buckley; third, Marsha Landis; Counted Cross Stitch-first, Peggy Schuler; Macrame-first, Jo Ann Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaver on the death last week of their daughter Robin. Flowers on the altar for Sunday morning's worship service in Centermoreland United Methodist Church were placed there in her memory.

Color guard of the Centermoreland Girl Scout troop at Robin's funeral included these members of Girl Scout Troop 500 of which she was a member: Kelly Klimas, Beth Phillips, Helen Avery and Mrs. Ama DeGraw, leader.

Sincere sympathy also is extended the family of the late Richard Judge of Centermoreland, who passed away Saturday morning about 4:30 of a heart attack. Funeral services were held Monday from the Metcalfe Funeral Home in Wyoming with Rev. Carlos Munoz, pastor of Centermoreland United Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was in Memorial Shrine Cemetery at Carverton.

'Foolishness of the Cross'

"The Foolishness of the Cross," will be the topic for Sunday's sermon by Rev. Dr. Allan Cease, pastor, at the three morning worship services in the Carverton, Mount Zion and Orange United Methodist Churches. Sermon will be based on the Test: I Corinthians 1:18-25.

Greater Pittston Protestant Laymen's Association will sponsor its 27th annual Communion breakfast on Sunday, March 23, at 7 a.m. at First United Methodist Church, West Pittston. Members of the three UM Churches comprising the Carverton UM Charge are invited to attend. Reservations close on Monday, March 17.

Blood pressure screening

A free blood pressure screening program is held the third Wednesday of every month in the auditorium, Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Medical Arts Bldg., 534 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. The next Blood Pressure Screening Program is set for March 19.

For further information, please contact Anita Waznia, R.N., Director of Hospital Education, Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, 288-1411, ext. 265, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Harveys Lake "Day"

planned by society

Harveys Lake Historical Society will hold a general meeting, March 19, 7:30 p.m., at the Daniel C. Roberts Fire Hall.

The meeting is for the purpose of discussing the plans which the historical society officers have been making for Harveys Lake Days. Historical items or information also will be appreciated.

The public is invited to attend.

Kathy Tattersall weds Thomas Evans

Miss Kathy Tattersall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tattersall, Harveys Lake, and Thomas Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans, Trucksville, were united in marriage on March 1 at the Alderson United Methodist Church, Harveys Lake. The Rev. Michael Bealla performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white, formal length gown of silk organza over silk Peau de Soie. Venice lace enhanced the bodice, A-line skirt and long sleeves. She wore a matching head piece with a full illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of assorted white flowers.

Betty Ann Miller was matron of honor and wore a formal length gown of pastel yellow quiana, featuring an empire waistline and lace trimmed bodice. She carried a matching single rose. Michelle Boice, sister of the bride, and Susan Tattersall, sister-in-law of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were attired similarly to the matron-of-honor, in pastel blue and pastel pink and carried a matching single rose.

Kurt Evans, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Lee Evans, brother of the bridegroom, and Joe Waltich, brother-in-law of the bridegroom were ushers.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, at the JR Davis Volunteer Fire Company in Idetown.

The bride was feted at a variety shower given by her mother and bridesmaids.

Mrs. Lee Evans and the mother of the bridegroom entertained at a rehearsal dinner.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple will reside at 41 Kidder Street in Wilkes-Barre.

United Methodist Women of Mount Zion UM Church met Tuesday evening. The Mt. Zion UM Women also meet Wednesday mornings at the church social rooms for a craft class. The articles made at the class will be sold at the church's annual benefit yard sale, which will be held on August 2.

'Wonders for Nicole'

Nice to report that Nicole Gaughan, two-year old daughter of Linda and Thomas GAughan of Harding, came home by airplane from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., where she underwent successful surgery to implant arteries in her heart. She was accompanied on the plane trip by her parents.

The family expressed thanks and appreciation to all who contributed so generously to ease the burden of the medical costs. She had been a patient at the Mayo Clinic for three and one-half weeks. She is scheduled to return in about 18 months for a further checkup. Mrs. Gaughan was especially pleased with the surgery at Mayo. "They've done wonders for Nicole," she commented.

Sincere sympathy is offered to the families of Mrs. Bertha Rickert, formerly of Carverton, who passed away on Feb. 25, and Burrell Brace, Jr., formerly of Mount Zion, who passed away on Sunday, March 3.

New pulpit scarves and bookmarks have been presented to Carverton United Methodist Church by Mrs. Evelyn Shales in memory of her late husband, Miles Shales.

Confirmation Class of Mount Zion UM Church will meet Saturday morning at 10 at the church.

Mrs. Mildred Schray, Mrs. Bea Beatty, Mrs. Elizabeth Munoz and daughter Donna Munoz, all of Centermoreland attended the UMW jurisdictional meeting in Philadelphia last weekend.

Lenten Services

Rev. Robert Wood, pastor of the Lake Winola United Methodist Church, will be the guest speaker at the Lenten service to be held Sunday evening at 7:30 at Dymond Hollow UM Church, as part of the continuing Sunday night Lenten services sponsored by the Centermoreland UM Charge.

Mrs. Medora Scheff of Dan Flood Towers in Kingston, came home Friday from Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where she underwent surgery. She is the mother of Mrs. Richard Farr of Vernon.

Stanley Weaver of Centermoreland has been a patient at John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Md. since February 27, where he has been undergoing medical tests. His condition at presstime was reported as "improved."

Nice to report that Robert Rogers of Vernon came home on Friday after a stay at the Intensive Care Unit at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. His condition shows much improvement.

Administrative board of Dymond Hollow UM Church will meet Monday evening at 8.

Board of trustees of East Dallas United Methodist Church will meet Tuesday evening at 8 at the church.

Choir of Carverton UM Church will rehearse this evening at 6:45 at the church.

Choir rehearsal for East Dallas UM Church will be held Saturday morning at 10.

Serhan to speak at Book Club

The Book Club of the Back Mountain Memorial Library will meet Monday, March 17, 1:30 p.m., in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown. Mrs. Dana Crump will preside.

Following the business meeting Miss Sandra Serhan, president of Harveys Lake Historical Society, will talk about the society and also show samples of drapery fabrics.

Hospitality committee members Mrs. Clarence Laidler, Mrs. Ralph Lewis and Mrs. Traver Noble will serve tea. Guests are welcome.

Sweet Valley Fire Co. to sponsor show

The Sweet Valley Volunteer Fire Company will sponsor the Rita Rose Country-Western Show, plus a hilarious comedy act, on Saturday, March 22 at 8 p.m. at the Fire

Hall, Main Road, Sweet Valley.
