Mr. and Mrs. Voyle Traver

Travers observe 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Voyle Traver of Noxen will observe their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday and will be honored at an open house celebration Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 in First United Methodist Church of Noxen social rooms. No invitations have been issued and friends and relatives of the Noxen couple are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Traver, long time residents of Noxen, were married on April 12, 1930, by Rev. Smales. They are parents of three children: Mrs. Arnold D. (Jeannette) Wright of Mary Esther, Fla.; Seldon of Greencastle, Pa., and Mrs. Lawrence (Dorothy) Patton of Noxen.

Mr. and Mrs. Traver also have 13 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

J.F. Polks observe 50th

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frederick Polk, 48 Harris Hill Road, Trucksville, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, April 12.

They were married in 1930 by the Rev. R. J. Rees in the parsonage of the Bethesda Congregational Church, Edwardsville. Attendants were Ivor Hughes and Grace Hughes Kreisler, brother and sister of the bride.

Mrs. Polk is the daughter of the late Samuel and Mary Gregory Hughes of Kingston. Mr. Polk is the son of the late Samuel and Nora Lyons Polk of Benton. They are the parents of two children—a son Raymond, deceased and a daughter Jane, the wife of Robert Ash of Trucksville. The couple have eight grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

They are members of the Trucksville United Methodist Church and have resided in Trucksville for 43 years.

The couple will be honored at a dinner at Irem Temple Country Club.

League to meet at Trailer Park

Women interested in breastfeeding their babies are invited to an informal discussion meeting of the La Leche League. The Back Mountain La Leche League will meet Thursday April 17, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Edward Kosakowski, Updyke Trailer Park, Sweet Valley.

The topic of the meeting will be "The Baby Arrives—the Family and the Breastfed Baby." Experienced breastfeeding mothers will be on hand to answer any questions and a lending library of books on childbirth, childcare, and breastfeeding is available at the meeting. Pregnant women, mothers and nursing babies, as well as any interested women are welcome. For more information call Mrs. Albert Holcomb, Sweet Valley.

For women who may find it inconvenient to attend, the Sweet Valley meeting, the La Leche League will also meet Wednesday April 16, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Albie J. Wyce, Sunset Avenue, Dallas.

The topic of the meeting will be "Weaning and Nutrition." For more information on this meeting, Call Mrs. Phillip Johnson, Trucksville.
