Police Reports

Reckless driving citation

A Kingston man was issued a citation for reckless driving by Kingston Township policemen, Chief Paul Sabol and Sgt. William Pugh on May 13 at 2 p.m.

According to the police, the automobile operated by John Henry Weinberg, 58 Butler St., Kingston, was observed by two witnesses proceeding "literally sideways" south on Route 309. The Weinberg vehicle struck the rear of an auto operated by Betsy Snyder, 6 Harris Hill Road, Trucksville, who was also traveling south on 309, then careened around the Snyder vehicle coming to rest on an embankment, according to the police reports.

Holly Hinkleman, Terrace Avenue, one of the three passengers in the Snyder auto, received a bump on the head, according to the report. Weinberg was transported to a nearby hospital by friends. Pugh and Sabol investigated.

Car lands in creek

Allen J. Shiplett, 155 Poplar St., Kingston, was involved in a potentially serious one car accident on May 17 at 7 a.m. on 309 in Kingston Township.

According to the police report, Shiplett was traveling one and a half miles south of Harter's Dairy on 309 when he fell asleep at the wheel and his vehicle left the road ripping out five guard rails and a road sign. His car and the operator then proceeded over an embankment, landing only two and one half feet from the edge of a ledge which drops off into Toby's Creek. Patrolman Luther Rozelle and Skip Davis investigated.

2-car mishap on Carverton Rd.

A two car mishap occured on Carverton Road on May 16 at 4 p.m. when a van operated by Sharon Baines, Bodel Road, RD 3 Wyoming, hit the rear of a vehicle operated by Camille Balent, Mt. Zion Road, W. Pittston. No injuries were reported. Gary Beisel is investigating.

Juveniles reprimanded

Four juvenile boys between the ages of 11 and 12 were observed May 20 by Chief Paul Sabol playing on the roof of the Shavertown Shopping Center. The chief said he was having coffee at Bill's Dinner when at 10:30 a.m. he observed this activity. Sabol said the boys were "good kids" and were reprimanded by the police and their parents were notified.

Tunkhannock man charged with theft

John M. Cook, Tunkhannock, was charged with theft of an item valued at under $50, a summary offense, by Kingston Township policemen John Appel and James Wisnieski. The man was nabbed while taking a planter valued at under $50 from the Mum Farm, Shavertown.

Motorcycle recovered

The motorcycle stolen two weeks ago from David Voitek, Jr., RD 3, Woming, valued at $625, was recovered last week by Sgt. Pugh and Patrolman Gary Beisel at Fehlingers Pond in the Carverton section of the township.

Kingston Township police are continuing their investigation of the theft

Swimming pools damaged

Next door neighbors residing in Westmoreland Hills, Kingston Township, Judy Coscia and Linda Serpico, 130 and 132 Frangorma Drive respectively, had their individual inground swimming pools seriously vandalized sometime on May 13.

Sgt. William Pugh found a $500 pool sliding board taken from one of the pools. Heavy plastic pool liners of both pools were cut and destroyed. Damages are estimated at $3,550 total. Pugh will continue the investigation.

Gas stolen from garage

Dallas Township police report a theft at the home of Harriet Crispell, Lower Demunds Road on May 16. Five gallons of gasoline valued at $6 were taken from her garage. Officer Clarke Van Orden investigated.

Cassette player stolen

A cassette player was stolen from the car of a Dallas High School student on May 14 between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Raef Fahmy reported to Dallas Township police the player was taken despite the fact his car was locked. Chief Miers reported the investigating officer Jeremey Torr and he believe the forced entry into the automobile was made by a coathanger. Incident occured at the school's parking lot.

Chrome hubcap rings taken

Harry Marquis, 37 Manor Drive, College Manor, reported to Dallas Township police the theft of four chrome rings from the hubcaps of his car. Value was set at $100. John Appel is investigating the theft which occured in the early hours of May 14.

Gas light vandalized

Lewis Goeringer, Shrine Acres, Dallas Township, reported his outdoor gas light was vandalized May 14. Damages were given as $200.

Township in penalty period

Vern Pritchard, tax collector for Kingston Township, advises that the 10 percent penalty will be added to all unpaid county and municipal taxes on June 1. The face value of these taxes is now effect. i n

Pritchard also reminded all renters and property owners who are 65 years of age or who are widowss or widowers between the ages of 50-64, as of Dec. 31 or who were permanently disabled during 1979, and whose income during 1979 was less than $8,999 are eligible for the property tax or rent rebate program. The final day to file for the rebates is June 30. Application forms are available at Pritchard's office.

Jay-C-Ettes

Back Mountain Jay-Cettes will sponsor a car wash, May 31, at the Schmid Arco Station, Shavertown, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Donation is $1.

Circus comes to Dallas June 26

The sights and sounds of the traditional American under-canvas circus, will be in Dallas on Thursday, June 26, when the Great

chairman of the event, reminds residents that members are now selling advance tickets, at reduced prices and for the benefit of less fortunate citizens. Funds raised by the circus project will be devoted to The Civic and Charitable Activities of the Organization.

County judge tells of juvenile justice

Judge Arthur D. Dalessandro recently spoke to the Dallas High School Community Council in a program held at the Dallas High School Auditorium, and reviewed the Juvenile Justice System, comparing it to the adult system. He described the supplied by the juvenile alone, without corroboration, cannot be used to find a child delinquent, a rule applying to children under the age of 18. In response to hearing process for questions. Dalessandro juveniles as being informal and that evidence delinquent. The basic stated that children under philosophy of the Juvenile 10 cannot be found Code in Pennsylvania is to keep the family together. Harveys Lake Assn. meets Sewer Authority building, The Harveys Lake FIREMEN'S BAZAAR--Members of the Jackson Township Volunteer Fire Department are making final arrangements for their annual bazaar to be held at Konefal's Grove on May 23, 24 and 25. Pictured above are some members classifying items for the auction to be held Sunday evening. A parade will be held Saturday at 5:30 p.m. featuring Lake Lehman's Award Winning High School Band. Special firemen contests will follow. The bazaar begins Friday evening with various games, rides, and refreshments available daily. Live music will be provided nightly.

Honor a special graduate's achievement with the most honored achievement in timekeeping. Seiko Quartz.
