

Brobst married to Razawich

Mrs. Bernard J. Razawich

Miss Patti A. Brobst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brobst of 110 Pinecrest Avenue, Dallas, and Bernard J. Razawich, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Razawich, 416 West 8th Street, West Wyoming, were recently united in marriage in our Lady of Sorrow's Church, West Wyoming.

The Reverend Michael J. Rafferty celebrated the nuptial mass and performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attired in a white formal length gown of sheer satepeau. The bodice was styled with a high chantilly lace neckline, bishop sleeves and an empire waistline. The A-line skirt featured chantilly lace and ended in back with an attached cathedral train.

Her headpiece was a profile of chantilly lace with a waltz length veil of silk illusion styled with a pearl design. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations, roses, daisies, and pink baby's breath.

Mrs. Bonnie Valentine, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a formal length gown of pink sylesta. The bodice was styled with a beauteau neckline, caplet sleeves and an empire waistline with an A-line skirt.

She carried a fireside basket of pink miniature carnations, sweet heart roses, daisies, purple status, and baby's breath. She also wore a matching floral headpiece.

Bridesmaids were Gale Brobst, sister-in-law of the bride, Janice Clark, and Robin Fry. They were dressed identical to the matron of honor in mauve, and each carried a fireside basket identical to that carried by the matron of honor.

Mary Lynn Richards, cousin of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She was dressed identical to the matron of honor. She carried a fireside basket of pink carnations, daisies, and sweet heart roses. She wore matching flowers in her hair.

Tony Yurek was best man. Ushers were Lee Brobst, brother of the bride, and Tim Razawich brother of the bridegroom, and Tim Valentine brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Matthew Bartoli, cousin of the bridegroom was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride selected an original floor length gown of Iris Sylesta with a beaded motif at the empire waistline, styled with a pleated skirt. The gown featured a matching jacket.

The mother of the bridegroom selected a floor length gown of green polyester with an empire waistline. The gown featured a matching brooch. An evening reception was held at the American Legion, Wilkes-Barre after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Florida.

The rehearsal party was given by the bridegroom's parents at Someplace Restaurant, West Wyoming.

The bride was feted at a variety shower given by her attendants, and the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom at the American Legion Home, Dallas.

Razawich is employed by the Local 1319 International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.
