

Priscilla Circle plans supper

The Priscilla Circle of the Shavertown United Methodist Church will meet for a covered dish supper Monday, June 16 at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Wilma Williams.

Members are asked to make reservations by June 15. Program will be a white elephant auction and members are asked to bring articles for this.

Truckville Assembly presents the Amicos

Truckville Assembly of God is presenting a series of special meetings featuring Michael and Rita Jo Amico, an internationally known evangelistic team, at special services on Sunday, June 15, 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.; and Monday-Friday, June 16-20 at 7 p.m. at the First Assembly of God located on 340 Carverton Road in Truckville.

At 26, Mike Amico is a graduate of Southeastern College in Lakeland, Fla., earning a degree in theology, speech and communication. Over the last seven years he has been actively involved in evangelistic work taking him to more than 30 states and abroad as well.

His wife, Rita Jo, is a talented soloist and a recording artist as well.

Throughout the crusade there will be prayer for salvation, healing and baptism in the Holy Spirit. Pastor Keith A. Holt extended a welcome to all, regardless of denominational background.

C'moreland UM plans Sunday School picnic

An Old Fashioned Sunday School Picnic will be held by members of Centermoreland United Methodist Church on the church grounds at Centermoreland on Sunday, June 29. The picnic is the third in the series of events sponsored by the Sunday School and Education Departments of the Centermoreland UM Church marking the 200th anniversary of the founding of Sunday Schools in America.

Previously the Centermoreland UM Church group showed a movie on the growth and founding of Sunday Schools in America, and on Memorial Day, the three churches of Centermoreland Baptist, Blessed Sacrament and Centermoreland UM had two colorful floats entered in the Memorial Day parade at Tunkhannock, in observance of the founding of Sunday Schools in America. The floats won first and third prizes in the parade.

Rev. Carlos Munoz is pastor of Centermoreland UM Church. Mrs. Bea Beatty is superintendent of the church school and is being assisted in the bicentennial observance projects by teachers and officers of the church school.

Maple Grove, L'ville plan Bible school

The Maple Grove and Loyalville United Methodist Churches will be holding a Vacation Bible School at the Maple Grove Church from June 16 to 20. There will be classes for ages two through 12 from 9 a.m. to noon each day, and a special closing program for all ages will be held on Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Students will learn through such activities as singing, Bible study, crafts, and group games. A good time is being planned for all who can attend.

Ask friends to join and make plans now to attend Vacation Bible School. For more information and to preregister, please call Mrs. Maggie Rambus at 477-2541.

There is no charge for the school, although children will be taught stewardship through the collection of an offering each day.

Walk for world hunger planned

The Alderson and Kunkle United Methodist Churches will hold their second annual Walk For World Service around Harveys Lake on June 21.

Proceeds from the ten-mile walk will support the World Service apportionments of the churches and monies received above that need will go to world hunger programs.

Last year some 25 persons of all ages participated in the walk and raised a large sum of pledged gifts. It is hoped that everyone will support this vital ministry of the church again this year.

Walker pledge sheets are available at either church or can be obtained by phoning the church parsonage at 639-5401.

Rest stops are planned along the way including a short refreshment break. An automobile will follow the walkers making it possible for those who feel they cannot make the whole distance to ride the remainder of the walk.

The walk will begin at 9 a.m. promptly in the parking lot of the Alderson Church, to walk rain or shine.

Kunkle UM sets VCS

The Kunkle United Methodist Church has set the week of June 16 through June 20 for their annual Vacation Church School program. Children of all ages are welcome. Classes will begin each day at 9 a.m. and dismiss promptly at 11:30 a.m.

Interested parents can register their children by calling the church parsonage at 639-5401. There is no charge for registration. A daily free will offering will be received.

Who Needs
$250,000
Worth Of Life Insurance? You do!

Who Can Afford It? You can!
You don't need to be wealthy any more to need $250,000 of life insurance . . . or more. With disposable income low and inflation high, your beneficiaries need more life insurance now than in years past . . . just to survive.

And with a ModernLife™ alternative from Federal Kemper called . . .

MAXI/TERM*

. . . you can afford now to protect your family later. EXAMPLE: A 40-year-old male who purchases the minimum Maxi/Term face amount of $250,000 pays a monthly premium during the first year of only $42.22. For a $1,000,000 policy, he'd pay just $163.63 a month the first year. Although the premium rate increases each successive year, premiums may be reduced significantly in the 5th policy year with new evidence of insurability.

The Maxi/Term alternative also allows: (A) Issue from ages 20 through 75; (B) Conversion from term to permanent insurance; (C) An optional Cost-Of-Living benefit.

*Term to Age 95 (Policy Series 3133) underwritten by Federal Kemper Life Assurance Company, Long Grove, IL. This policy not available in New York or Wyoming.

If you're hopelessly overburdened by debts . . .

Can personal bankruptcy help you?

It might possibly be the answer. Individuals and couples can file for bankruptcy just as businesses can. If you qualify and are declared legally bankrupt, you are freed of most old debts and can have a fresh new start in life. Consult with me to learn if you are eligible. Fee for filing uncontested personal bankruptcy, from $450. Court costs are additional. Fees for other services on request.
