On Saturday the Pirates defeated the Blue Jays 13-6 behind pitcher Ed Dubil who struck out eight batters and gave up only one hit. Robby Kuschke drove out two triples and Bobby Gray knocked out one triple. J.R. Smith aided with a double.

Rich Cummins hurled for the Blue Jays. B. J. Gately's single was the lone Blue Jay hit.

Phillies outscore Reds 14-7

The Phillies outscored the Reds 14-7 on Saturday behind hurling by Jim Martin who fanned six at the plate. Jeff Martin helped in the win by hitting a home run.

Aaron Parrish pitched for the Reds with Chris Schariff and Brian Coulton driving out doubles.

Rebels clash with Roma in "battle of unbeatenens"

Villa Roma with seven wins in as many starts continues to set the pace for teams of the National Division of the Back Mountain Slo-Pitch Softball League while the Noxen Rebels remained unbeaten with a string of six wins to continue out front in the American Division.

One or the other will be dropped from the unbeaten ranks this evening when the two teams meet on the back diamond at Lehman at 6. Carl Siglin of the Rebels is confident his team can maintain its undefeated record against the Villa Roma squad. Chuck Wilson and Bruce Boyle, who co-direct the destinies of the Villa Roma squad, however, sees it differently.

"Our squad has seven wins under its belt and is confident we can knock off the Rebels," Boyle confided. "We're not underestimating the Rebels. They have a good combination of players but this is 'Our Year.' This is the Game of the Year, insofar as Villa Roma is concerned," Boyle concluded.

The game is expected to attract a capacity crowd to the Lehman playing field.

Villa Roma, however, had to get by the strong Cook's Variety team in one of Tuesday's games and faced a formidable opponent. Cook's, after dropping their opener of the season has come up with four wins in a row, is in second place and pushing the Rebels for honors in the American Division.

Another good contest slated for this evening will send second place Lamoreaux Auto Parts of the National Division against the Hearthstone Pub squad of the American Division. The Pub boys had a 3-2 record at the end of last week's play, while Lamoreaux, one of the better of the new teams in the league this season, is in a second place tie with Jones Pancake House in the National Division with 5-2 records each.

Results of games played last Tuesday (June 3) saw Hilltop Inn overwhelm Lakeside Trucking, 15 to 5; Noxen Rebels didn't have too much trouble in beating the Hearthstone Pub squad, 11 to 1; Noxen Texaco surprised Mr. Donut, beating the Bunchkins, 2 to 0; Villa Roma was extended and barely beat out the Doghouse team, 5 to 4; Lamoreaux Auto Parts made it a runaway against Columbia Porch Shades, 14 to 4; Lamoreaux Auto Parts made it a runaway against Columbia Porch Shades, 14 to 4; Jones Pancake House blanked Tupper's Sporting Goods, 10-0, and Cook's continued its win streak with a 14-2 decision over Down Home Music.

In Thursday's games, Villa Roma registered its seventh win in as many starts, beating second place Lamoreaux Auto Parts, 11 to 1; Noxen Texaco continued to show surprising strength and beat Down Home Music, 24 to 16; Cook's eked out a 9 to 8 decision over Mr. Donut; Columbia Porch Shades bounced back into the win column with a 15-5 win over Lakeside Trucking; Jones' stayed in the race for National Division honors by taking an 8 to 3 decision from Hilltop Inn, and Tupper's scored a 7 to 2 win over the Doghouse team.

Hearthstone Pub and Miller's battled to an 11-11 tie in their game Thursday and will continue the contest to a decision in the near future.

Last evening (Wednesday) Noxen Rebels were scheduled to play Columbia Porch Shades at 6 and Hilltop Inn was slated to go against Noxen Texaco at 7, both games scheduled for the Noxen field.

This evening's games will send the Rebels against Villa Roma at 6 and Down Home Music against the Doghouse squad at 7, both games scheduled for the back diamond at Lehman. Mister Donut plays Jones' Pancake House at 6 and Columbia Porch Shades meets Cook's Variety at 7 on the front diamond at Lehman. This evening's games on the Penn State diamond at Lehman will send Miller's against Lakeside Trucking at 6 and Lamoreaux's Auto Parts will have their hands full in trying to stop the Hearthstone Pub squad at 7. Tupper's Sporting Goods has the bye for this evening.

Some good games are on the menu for Tuesday evening, Tupper's take on Cook's at 7 after the Dog House-Noxen Texaco game at 6 on the Noxen diamond; Hearthstone Pub and Villa Roma go at it at 6 Tuesday on the front diamond at Lehman, followed by the Down Home Music - Hilltop Inn game at 7.

On the back diamond at Lehman Tuesday at 6, Noxen Rebels will face the tied-for-secondplace Jones' Pancake squad of the National Division, after which Mr. Donut will play Lakeside Trucking at 7 - both teams having but one win through last week end.

In the lone game on the Penn State diamond Tuesday at 6, Miller's will be guests of the Columbia Porch Shades team at 6. Lamoreaux Auto Parts has the bye for Tuesday.

Standings of the teams: American Division - Noxen Rebels, 6-0; Cook's Variety, 4-1; Hearthstone Pub, 3-2; Noxen Texaco, 3-3; Down Home Music, 2-4; Miller's, 1-1; Mr. Donut, 1-5.

National Division. Villa Roma, 7-0; Lamoreaux Auto Parts and Jones inn, 4-3; Tupper's Sporting Goods, 3-4; Columbia Porch Shades, 2-4; Dog House, 1-5; Lakeside Trucking, 0-7.

Overbrook Inn visits Noxen Rebels

On Sunday, June 15th, one of the best softball teams in Pennsylvania will play a double header at Noxen Ball Field.

Overbrook Inn (SUDS) will go against the Noxen Rebels and one other team from the area. Gametime is 2 p.m. The public is welcome. Refreshments will be available. All proceeds will benefit Noxen Little League.

Big week for Teeners

Season honors in the Teeners Division of the Bob Horlacher Memorial League is riding on the two sets of games scheduled to be played this week in the loop.

Last evening (Wednesday) Centermoreland was slated to meet their arch rivals, the league leading Orange Yankees, at Orange. The Yankees were leading the loop at the end of last week's play with a 7-2 record for the season. In the other game slated for last evening, second place Kunkle, a full game behind the Yankees, was scheduled to meet Jim Brody's Beaumont-Jenks combination.

Saturday's schedule will send Rick Miller's Centermoreland squad against Ron Clemow's Kunkle nine on the Kunkle Community field in a 4 o'clock start, while Dick Hislop's Orange nine is battling Beaumont-Jenks on the Orange diamond.

Camping trips list

The Wyoming Valley Catholic Youth Center announces a series of overnight camping trips to be conducted this summer. All trips will have two qualified counselors. Trip highlights will include nature hikes, scavenger hunts, campfire program, survival skills, swimming, and organized games.

Dates and sites for the trips are: June 6, 7, 8 - Camp Louise, July 11, 12, and 13 - Race's Farm, Aug. 8, 9, and 10 - Camp Joy Lo.

Kunkle has to win Saturday's game against Centermoreland to maintain a mathematical chance of copping league honors. Kunkle is a game out of first place, behind the Orange Yankees, whom they meet in the final game of the season on Saturday, June 21.

Orange moved into the league lead and broke a tie for first place by outlasting Kunkle, 16-14, in a free scoring game on Saturday. Tete Baseski came on in relief to gain the win for the Yankees. Big guns in the Orange attack were Dan Blessner, who hit a double, triple and homer in the game, and the Coolbaugh Boys-Don and Ed-who had five RBI's each.

In the other Teener Division contest on Saturday, Rick Miller's Centermoreland Phillies had little trouble, besting the Beaumont-Jenks team, 28-5, to remain on the heels of the Kunkle squad.

Standings of the teams: Orange, 7-2; Kunkle, 6-3; Centermoreland, 5-4; Beaumont-Jenks, 0-9.

Beaumont wins, 22-9

Beaumont scored a 22 to 9 win over Centermoreland to move into a tie for the top spot in the Minors Division of the Bob Horlacher Memorial Little League. Both teams are sporting season records of five wins and a loss each.

In other games last week, Kunkle's Indians defeated Noxen, 22 to 11, with Jim Newell getting the mound win and Matt Kaminaskas and Ben Kern hitting for the circuit, while the Orange Orioles scored an exciting 23-19 win over their intratown rivals, the Orange Yankees. Highlights of the game were a grand slam homer by Leo Mayeski and an unassisted double play by Pat Sudol. Joe Perrone was the winning pitcher.

In a makeup contest Wednesday, Kunkle Pirates, behind the pitching of Tom Meade, defeated the Kunkle Indians, 29-16, to move into third place in the league standings.

Standings of the teams through last Saturday: Centermoreland and Beaumont, 5-1; Kunkle Pirates, 3-2; Orange Orioles, 3-3; Orange Yankees, 2-4; Kunkle Indians, 2-4; Noxen, 1-6.

Slow-pitch league opens

Back Mountain Women's Modified Slo-pitch League opened the season, Wednesday, June 4, with a game between Pruits' Pride and Offset. Pruits defeated Offset 12-6.

Friday night's game between Crackerbox

Palace and the Legion was canceled because of rain. The game was rescheduled for Sunday, June 15, at 6:30 p.m.
