

St. Andrews car blessing features cupolas

St. Andrew's Orthodox Church, Huntsville Road, Dallas will have the blessing of cars on Sunday, July 6 at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. at the church parking area. Cupolas surmounted with a three bar cross will be given as a reminder that drivers should practice courtesy on the road. The cupolas have been donated by Al Lipko. For more information call 675-2777. A covered dish luncheon will be held on the church lawn following the 9:30 a.m. Divine Liturgy on July 6. Those wishing to attend are asked to bring a covered dish meal and their lawn chairs. Call Mr. or Mrs. Michael Prokopchak at 675-1439 for reservation.

The bus trip to New York has been postponed until the fall. A bus trip to Atlantic City is being planned for July 19. The public is invited for this one day trip. Call Mrs. John Kriel at 639-5004 for tickets.

The grandma of the parish under whose watchful eye the perohi are made is celebrating her 85th birthday on July 15. A card shower would be appreciated. Send to Mrs. Zenia Michalic, RD 4, Box 351K, Dallas, Pa. 18612. A greeting from President and Mrs. Carter will be given her on the birthdate.

Love Sunday held at UM

The United Methodist churches of Carverton, Mount Zion, and Orange united for a worship service on Sunday, June 29 at the Carverton church to celebrate "Love Sunday." Covenant love for the church was indicated as church members wore colored badges marking their years of membership and service in their respective churches. Colors ranged from white for new members to purple and gold for 50-year members.

church membership. Covenant love for the family was celebrated by recognizing all couples married at least 50 years.

The Rev. Dr. Allan J. Cease, pastor, preached on the theme, "What the World Needs Now," and a combined choir sang the anthem, "The Love of My Lord to Me." The service concluded with a renewal of marriage vows by all married couples present and a renewal of the congregations' covenant with God.

Mrs. John Perry was honored for being an active member of the church longer than anyone else present (76 years), and Mrs. Ezra Rozelle was similarly honored for 68 years of

The following couples married at least 50 years were honored at a reception following the service:

From Carverton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bruno, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Git-tens, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Ickinger, Mr. and Mrs. John Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Sickler, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sutton.
