C'moreland auction, barbecue planned

Plans for the 25th annual Centermoreland Auction and Barbecue are well underway by members of Centermoreland United Methodist Church. This year's auction-barbecue will be held on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 8 and 9, starting at 4 p.m. each day. Barbecue will be served starting at 4 each day, followed by the auction, which will get underway at 7 both evenings.

Over the years, the auction-barbecue has attracted thousands of northeastern Pennsylvania residents and proceeds have benefitted the church in its various programs.

All of the items auctioned off during the two nights of bidding are donated by area residents and merchants. The barbecue attracts upwards of a thousand diners each year with some of the Back Country's best chefs assisting in preparing the delicious meal.

Co-chairpersons for this year's benefit affair are Frank G. Williams, Carl Besteder and Mrs. Bea Beatty, who have been active over the years in promoting the benefit barbecue-auction.

Assisting on the various committees as chairpersons are the following: grounds, Donald Rought, barbecue; Mrs. Sheryl Phillips, Mrs. Judy Schoonover; barbecue pits, Stanley Weaver, Ted Dymond; auction, Joyce and Roger Bellas, Jack Rogers, auctioneer, Richard Brunges; small goods stand, Mrs. Betty Dee French; baked goods, Mrs. Estelle Whispell;

'Summertime Excitement' available in Luzerne County

Public parks, amusement parks, museums and scores of events are among the attractions listed in a new newspaper tabloid style publication that highlights summer season activities in Luzerne County.

Entitled "Summertime Excitement," the publication focuses on the many things to do in Luzerne County and is intended to serve as a saving guide to the region. With its location between the Pocono Resort Area and the Endless Mountains, Luzerne County provides the ideal base for one-day excursions to all parts of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Complimentary copies of the guide are available from the Luzerne County Tourist Promotion Agency, 301 Market Street, Kingston, PA 18704; (717) 288-6784 or 288-7038.
