Rev. Arnold Fruchtenbaum

Israeli war witness to speak at Dallas

The Rev. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum will be the speaker at the Community Church of Dallas on Sunday, Aug. 24, at 11 a.m. and Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, August 24-27, at 7 p.m.

Fruchtenbaum is the director of Ariel Ministries, a Jewish-Christian organization.

He was born in Siberia, Russia, while his parents were held prisoner in a Communist Concentration Camp. He received orthodox Jewish training while a young boy and came to New York with his family in 1951.

He received his training in theology at Cedarville College in Cedarville, Ohio and at the Dallas Theological Seminary. He studied Hebrew, archaeology, and ancient history at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

It was during this time that the now-historic, Six-Day War broke out between Israel and the Arab nations.

At present he is a Ph.D. candidate at New York University. His first-hand observations of this critical period in Israel's history along with a thorough study of the Bible has brought him to certain conclusions about the role of the nation Israel and God's plan of world redemption.

Fruchtenbaum's experience and insight has led to his being considered an expert on interpreting current events in the light of the Bible. He has often been asked to speak in Bible conferences all over the United States.

"Mr. Fruchtenbaum will be speaking on the topic Prophecy and the Jew," Pastor Wayne Brooks of the Community Church announced.

Orange church notes first anniversary

Pastor Dennis Madeira this week announced that on Aug. 23 and 24 New Life Community Church, Orange, will be celebrating its first anniversary.

A "Celebration of Praise" has been planned for Aug. 23 to commemorate the anniversary. Activities begin at noon on Saturday and feature Christian music, old-time gospel preaching, puppets, muppets, movie bus, object lessons presenting

God through "gospel magic", congregational singing and free food.

Pastor and Mrs. Madeira and their family—"The Madeira Gospel Singers," will begin the program. Esther Kingsbury and her husband, Pastor Duane Kingsbury, will be ministering the song and message relating to "Jesus as Prophet".

Chuck Musto will begin the next session in song followed by Mark and Susie Dreistadt. Mark Dreistadt will bring a message on "Jesus as Priest".

Mrs. Joan Elston will start the third part of the afternoon with singing and Ric Farr will present piano arrangements and singing. Pastor Ken Kashner of the First Assembly of God Church in Wilkes Barre will bring a message entitled "Jesus as King".

During each of the messages the movie bus will be in operation showing animated gospel films to children 12 years and under. Just before the evening meal at 5 p.m. the Christian Muppets and Uncle Bob's gospel magic will present the Word Of God applied to daily life.

An evening praise service will begin at 7 p.m. Mrs. Bert Jopling will begin with singing, along with a "smorgasbord" of others. Pastor Madeira will bring the concluding message of the day "Jesus as Lord".

Regular Sunday School classes begin at 10 a.m. for all ages. Church begins at 11 a.m. with junior church available at the same time for children 12 and under. Sunday evening service begins at 7 p.m.

The public is invited to attend all activities Saturday and Sunday. For directions or more information call 639-1301 or 639-5825.

Trinity Women plan back-to-school sale

The Women's Association of Trinity United Presbyterian Church, Dallas, has been trying to ease family clothes budgets by opening a boutique for

"nearly-new" and "good quality" used clothing for tots to teens. The boutique has been successfully operating since April. Now, to help with the back-to-school budget, the women will hold a "back-to-school day and mini-flea" on Saturday, Aug. 24, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the church hall. There will be children's clothing, baked goods, plants, rummage, collectibles and craft items.

The women of Trinity have been furnishing the kitchen of the new church hall and visitors to the sale will get a glimpse of the efforts at that time.
