

Up With People presents all-new show

Up With People has an all new, two-hour show that can only be described as a total experience. There's a new music, new vitality, and a whole new cast eager to perform for the audience at the Dallas Jr. High School, Monday, Nov. 17, 7:30 p.m. This evening of family entertainment is sponsored by GFWC Dallas Jr. Woman's Club. The new show features dazzling costumes with a special international collection of folk dress. Tickets may be purchased at Back Mountain Lumber and Coal Co.,

Cook's Pharmacy, or at the door. Reserved seats for this performance are $6.50; general admission, adults $5.50; students and senior citizens $4.50.

Anzalones to entertain at Seminary day

James Anzalone '62, Shavertown, and his two daughters, Lauren, kindergarten student at the Payne Pettebone House, Wyoming, and Kristen, second grader at the Lower School Forty Fort, will be one of the groups entertaining at the Wyoming Seminary Day at Percy Brown's on Sunday, Nov. 16 from 11:30 to 6:30 p.m. Also singing in the group will be Dr. A. Anthony Anzalone '64, brother of James and uncle of the girls. They will sing a variety of selections from the "Sound of Music."

The event is sponsored by the school's Alumni Association in cooperation with Percy Brown's and is open to the public along with alumni, parents and friends of the school. Dinner will be served between 11:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. with entertainment provided throughout the day by students, alumni, faculty and parents of the Upper School in Kingston and the Lower School in Forty Fort.

The Alumni Association uses its share of the day's receipts to support the various student activities and continuing faculty education programs.

The theme is "Take me out to the ballgame, take me out to Percy Brown's." A variety of school related photographs and memorabilia from the athletic past will be displayed. Former coaches, as well as Hall of Famers from the school's Sports Hall of Fame, and school administrators and faculty will serve as welcoming committee.

Fairmount square dance

A Square Dance will be held Nov. 15 sponsored by the Fairmount Twp. Fire Company. Red Jones will do the calling. The dance will be held at the Isaac Waltons Hall. Dancing will be from 8:30-11:30 p.m.

Children under eight will be admitted free. Tickets can be purchased from fire company members or at the door.

To get to the hall, on Rte. 118, turn left at Red Rock Corners, go one mile on the left. Refreshments will be sold at the dance.

Lake-Noxen PTA to meet

Lake-Noxen P.T.A. will hold its second meeting of the school year on Thursday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the multipurpose room at Lehman Jackson Elementary School.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Vera Cornish from Colege for Kids. Slides will also be shown. Babysitting will be available.

LaLeche to meet Nov. 19, 20

This month's meeting will be "The Art of Breastfeeding and Overcoming Difficulties." The discussion will touch on such aspects as getting off to a good start, the first six weeks at home and special circumstances such as breastfeeding after a Caesarean section and nursing the premature infant.

If mothers have considered breastfeeding their babies but have questions about it, or if they are nursing mothers, they are welcome to attend and bring their babies.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Maciejczak, Sweet Valley, Nov. 20, 7:30 p.m. For further information contact Mrs. Albert Holcomb.

Westmoreland PTO sponsors book fair November 17

Westmoreland Elementary School PTO will sponsor a student book fair on Parent-Teacher Conference Day, Nov. 17. Students will be able to browse and purchase books. The book fair will be open during the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Books will be on display in the school library. The book fair committee invites all students, parents and visitors to attend the fair. The fair will encourage student interest in reading and will also contribute to a worthwhile project. Books will be purchased on a cash and carry system. Betsy Balonis is serving as book fair chairman. The committee includes Marianne Williams, Taffy Shotwell, Pat Karuza, Sally Davenport and Joyce Youren. Sam Barbose is principal of Westmoreland Elementary School.

The book fair display will include attractive new books in all price ranges; wonderful books to read or to give as gifts. All reading interests will be represented including classics, fiction, biographies, and other categories.
