

Shavertown UM women will meet December 8

The Shavertown United Methodist Women will meet on Monday, Dec. 8, 8 p.m. in the church social rooms.

A musical program will be presented by Mark and Susie Dreistadt, who do ministry for the "Master's Evangelistic Association", Wilkes-Barre. Members and St. Therese's marked service guests are invited to come and experience the inspirational message of the Gospel through musical selections, ranging from beautiful old hymns to the contemporary sounds of Christian music. Mrs. Jean Chadwick is program chairwoman.

Devotions will be given by Mrs. Donna Kachmar, and the election of 1981 officers will be held. Hostesses for the evening will be members of the Mary Circle.

A near capacity attendance marked the Ecumenical Thanksgiving Eve service last Wednesday evening in St. Therese's Roman Catholic Church in Shavertown. The service was sponsored by the Back Mountain Clergy Association.

The offering taken up during the service will be used in part to aid victims of the earthquake in Southern Italy and the remainder for mission work in the Back Mountain.

Call to worship was by Rev. Father Joseph Sammons, pastor of St. Therese's Church, followed by invocation. Rev. Eugene Akers, pastor of Dallas United Methodist Church, gave the reading from the Old Testament (Psalm 65) and from the New Testament (St. Luke 17:11-19). Rev. Lynn Rothrock, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Shavertown, led the Litany of Thanksgiving.

Senior Choir and the Bell Choir of Dallas United Methodist Church sang with Mrs. Ross Santos of Lehman as guest soloist. Ushering was by members of St. Therese's Youth Ministry, who also assisted with serving of refreshments after the service in the church social rooms. Members of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine prepared the cookies and other tasks for the refreshment session.

Nice to have friends in State College, especially when there is a big game like the football contest played on Friday between Pitt and Penn State. Ten 'lucky' area residents had choice seats at Beaver Stadium in State College for Friday's game, thanks to Dick Nixon, former area resident, now residing at State College. Dick managed to get those hard-to-get ducats for the contest and among area folk, who saw Friday's game were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Koan, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Asby, Doug Smith and Scott Asby.
