

Dallas Kiwanis fetes motel residents

The Dallas Kiwanis Club held its third annual Christmas party for the elderly residents of the Dallas Motel, Monday, Dec. 15. Refreshments were served and a monetary gift given to each individual Santa Claus made his appearance in the person of Bill Redline. Reese Pelton led the group in Christmas and Holiday songs. Paul Selingo was chairman of the affair. A joyful atmosphere prevailed and the Holiday spirit made life more enjoyable to the elderly and handicapped occupants. Another Christmas party was held the previous day at a local rest home and others are planned in the Back Mountain area for the elderly citizens.

HL advises on police calls

Chief Lionel Bulford of the Harveys Lake Police Department reminds borough residents that a borough police officer will be contacted immediately when a call to the police number is made.

Even when an officer is on the road rather than in the office, the chief said, the statement by the operator that "Your call is being transferred" means that a dispatcher will notify the borough police immediately and an officer will respond.

Kunkle will host Santa

Santa Claus will visit Kunkle Fire Hall, Dec. 20 at 1 p.m.

Members of the community and firemen families are invited to attend.

BMCC announces future events

The Programming Committee of the Back Mountain Cultural (BMCC), a non-profit, community organization which is based in Dallas, has announced its upcoming slate of winter-spring-time activities. All programs are open to the public.

Children's Holiday Party, Dec. 16, 6 to 8 p.m., Penn State-Wilkes-Barre Campus, Lehman; featured will be ornament making, tree decorating, singing of traditional carols, and a performance by "The Puppetman," a professional, traveling puppeteer, co-sponsored by Penn State. Refreshments will also be served. Tobogganing at Eagles Mere, January 18. Dinner Theatre, Feb. 14; presentation to be announced. Spring classes, March 2-April 17; a varied agenda of art, craft, recreation, and self-enrichment courses. Danceteller, March 18, Penn State-Wilkes-Barre campus, Lehman; professional dance troupe which will conduct a full day residency as well as an evening performance, co-sponsored by Penn State. Philadelphia Day Trip, April 25. Gershwin, By George! May 24, Penn State-Wilkes-Barre Campus, Lehman. Musical repertoire of the works of George Gershwin performed by members of the Academy of Vocal Arts. Folk Arts Festival, June 6 and 7, grounds of College Misericordia, Dallas; annual festivity which features art and craft displays and demonstrations, entertainment, community exhibits, children's activities, and refreshments. Backgammon Club under the tutelage of Jerry Ross, a resident of Shavertown. The Cultural Center is hoping to organize a Backgammon Club, which will be open to participants of all ages and skill levels, including beginners. Mr. Ross, who formed a similar club at the Osterhout Library, Wilkes-Barre, several years ago, wishes to do so again in the Back Mountain area. All are encouraged to participate; there will be no club dues or class fees. Past activities for the Center's 1980-81 season have included an "Historic Tour of Wyoming Valley," an Autumn roster of classes, an "Antique and Hand-crafted Toy Exhibit," a performance by "Threeter," a professional touring company of three, which included a theatre workshop, a bus trip into NYC.

For further information concerning the Center, or any of the listed activities, contact Donna Dajnowski at 675-2171 ext. 247, weekdays between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Santa to visit HL

Santa Claus will arrive at Harveys Lake on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., Dec. 20.

He will be arriving at the fire hall and all Harveys Lake children are invited to see and talk to him.

All fire company members are reminded that the Annual Christmas Party, will be held at the Harveys Lake Hotel on the evening of Dec. 20. Reservations and information can be obtained by contacting Clarence Hogan.
