

College Misericordia's Rosary Hall, opened in 1949. First floor was the home economics practice house; second and third floors, residence halls.

The bus shown above was driven by Russell Ide in 1936, transporting passengers in the Back Mountain.

Dallas and Harveys Lake trolley cars on Public Square in front of the old courthouse at the turn of the century did a heavy business. Note the baggage car at the left.

Dallas Township Baseball Team, 1913. In the photo are Francis Bustin, teacher; John Hildebrant, John Yaple, Roland, Stevens, Phillip Ellsworth, John Race, Loren Montross and Henry McDermott.

Prescription Department of the former Sheldon Evans Pharmacy, now the home of Cook's Drug Store in Shavertown.

The old trolley station is in the foreground as one looks up Main Street, Dallas, to the former Bodycomb Home at the corner of Huntsville Road.