

EAST-WEST ALL-STAR GAME AT WILKES—The fourth annual Franklin's Family Restaurant East-West Classic, featuring the top senior high school baseball players from the Wyoming Valley Conference, will be held on Sunday afternoon, June 7 at Wilkes College's Artillery Park. Bob Corba, head mentor at Coughlin, will manage the East team this spring while Gerry Stortz of Wyoming Valley West, will serve as coach of the West. All schools in the WVC will be represented in the event. Teams will be announced at a later date. The units are selected by a vote of the WVC head coaches. Members of the classic committee, above are kneeling, three of last year's participants who now play for the Wilkes College baseball team. Left to right are George Hall, out of Coughlin; Jim Michaels, a former three-sport standout at Lake-Lehman; and Mark Belenski, a graduate of Wyoming Valley West; standing, Wilkes head baseball coach Dave Kaschak; Coughlin mentor Bob Corba; Frank Paczewski, executive vice-president of Franklin's; Gene Domzalski, game chairman; and Gerry Stortz of Valley West. Sweet Valley Fire Co. holds parade

Come one and all to Sweet Valley Volunteer Fire company annual Memorial Day Fair, May 22, 23 and 25. The grounds open at 5:30 p.m. on May 22 and 23 and 10 a.m. May 25.

May 25 is parade day which is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. sharp. Friday evening, there will be a special event for the public. Sweet Valley Volunteer Firemen for the first time will hold a "Mud" wrestling contest. Come see the firemen wrestle and cheer on your favorite fireman. On the program also will be the Country Sweethearts. Saturday and Monday the Ripcoards will be on hand to thrill the crowds. If the weather permits they will attempt a difficult and unusual aerial display. For listening pleasure on Saturday there will be the Citations Band. Monday morning the Al Hess family will be here to entertain. Following the parade which is scheduled for 1:30 p.m., the local firemen will have a Bucket Brigade contest. A Kiddie drawing is to be held for children under 12 years old. Evening's entertainment will be the Quotation Band and also the Rhythmaires Polka Band. Concluding an entertainment weekend will be a gigantic fireworks display. There will be free parking and free entertainment each day.

Dancers to entertain at LNL meeting

Living a New Life (LNL), will hold their regular monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 28, in St. Ignatius Church Hall, Maple Street, Kingston.

Entertainment for the evening will be the Emerald Isle Step Dancers under the direction of Mrs. Janet Ginley and Mrs. Maurita Soltis. The dancers share their Irish heritage and culture in the performance of a variety of Irish dances, including jigs, reels and hornpipes. The step dancers perform in the precise manner required by the Irish National Dance Teachers Association. Included in the group are Milly Ginley, Theresa Ginley, Margaret Monahan and Maureen Monahan. Living a New Life is an organization founded to help the widow and widower adjust to widowhood and to make a healthy recovery from their loss of a spouse. There are no restrictions as to race, sex, age or religion.

CDC officers installed

The installation of new CCD officers for St. Frances Cabrini and Blessed Sacrament churches, Carverton and Centermoreland, was marked by a covered dish supper at the organization's monthly meeting on Monday evening, May 4.

Former officers were Ann Ondish, president; Joe Mooney, who was re-elected vice president; Betty Hilstolsky, secretary; and Denise Rafferty, treasurer. Other business discussed at the meeting included plans for the May 6 and 7 rummage sale. The organization's next meeting will be held Monday evening, June 1. All parishioners are invited to attend.
