

Centermoreland cops major title

The Centermoreland Phillies, coached by Jack Gilpin, are the 1981 straight season champions of the Majors Division of the Bob Horlacher Memorial Little League. The Phillies finished the straight season with a record of 13 wins and 15 games and won their last seven regular games.

In games played last week, the Faux Boy-Greg and Mike-were victorious on the mound with Steve Dymond, Todd Tought and Greg Faux coming up with the offense 'punch' for the Phillies. Dymond hit a homer in each game, while Rought slammed a four-bagger in Monday's game against the Noxen A's. Greg Faux hit a bases-loaded triple in the game against Noxen.

Beaumont's Braves won both of their games last week, beating Kunkle 4 to 1, and knocking off the Orange Yankees, 11 to 5, to finish in the runnerup position in the league standings. Winning pitchers for Beaumont were Lester Smith and Danny May.

Final standings of teams in the Majors Division, which now awaits All Star selection for inter-district Little League playoff competition, follows:

Cent'land 13 2 .876, Beaumont 10 5 .667, Orange Yanks 8 7 .533, Noxen 7 8 .467, Kunkle 6 9 .400, Orange Orioles 1 14 .067.

Standings of the teams in the other Horlacher League divisions: Pony Tail: Kunkle 10-0; Blue Jays and Honey Bears 8-3; Centermoreland 3-7; Orioles 2-8, and Reds, 0-10.

Minors Division; Beaumont 7-1; Centermoreland 5-3; Orange 4-4; Kunkle 0-8.

Teeners Division; Centermoreland 7-1; Beaumont 6-2; Kunkle 2-5; Orange 0-7.

T-Ball Division: Orioles 6-0; Bears and Centermoreland 4-2; Cubs 3-2; Reds 2-4; Noxen 1-4; Kunkle 0-6.

Hole-in-one

Sam Pauletti

Sam Pauletti hit his second hole-in-one, Friday, June 19, at the Orange Golf Course, on the sixth hole which is 200 yards and par three.

Pauletti was one of a foursome including John and Denny Roznak and Hoppy Kovalchick. He was using a No. 3 wood club. His first hole in one also was on the sixth hole at Orange in 1976.

He started to play golf while teaching in the Wilkes-Barre School District in 1964. He retired from teaching to devote his time to golf and his family. Pauletti is teaching the game to his two grandsons, Jay Wilkes, 11, and Sam Wilkes, 8.

The Pauletts have been residents of the Back Mountain for 20 years.

Rec Center

has many events

The Dallas Recreation Center boasts a busy schedule of events this summer. Along with fun activities for the children, the staff is involving the children and parents in educational events.

A Drug and Alcohol Abuse Program with speaker Mark C. Beidleman, Primary Prevention-Education specialist, will be held on Tuesday, July 7, at 7 p.m. for ages 11-15 and on Wednesday, July 8 at 1 p.m. for ages 6-10. Parents are welcome.

A "Western Nite" is scheduled for Wednesday, July 1 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Among the many activities planned for the evening are toasting hotdogs and marshmallows, bobbing for apples, a horseshoe toss, and a square dance. The children will be asked to dress "western style". Come one, come all to the Dallas Rec Center tonight!

Parents, please remember that children 5 years and under must be accompanied by an adult at all times.

Obremski

Tourney

set July 11

The first Willie Obremski Memorial Softball Tourney, sponsored by Villa Roma softball team of Harveys Lake will be held the weekends of July 11-12 and 18-19 at Noxen Softball field.

The tourney is open to all area softball teams and will be made up of 16 teams playing a double-elimination format. Entry fee is $75.

The tourney is named in honor of Willie Obremski of Swoyersville, who was a member of Villa Roma team and who died in a tragic accident two weeks ago. Proceeds from the tourney will be donated to Obremski's widow, Linda.

A trophy will be awarded to the first place team and a tourney MVP will also be selected. Further information can be obtained by contacting Bruce Boyle (639-5033) or Chuck Wilson (675-4927) or by contacting the Villa Roma.
