

Spotlight on business

Adam's in business since 1902

Most Back Mountain residents are familiar with Adam's Clothes in the Back Mountain Shopping Center, Shavertown. However, few are aware that Adam's Clothes has been in business since 1902.

The first store was opened by Adam Hozempa, II's, father on Main St., Edwardsville. The late Hozempa opened the business under the name "Hozempa's Men's Clothing". He first started as a tailor but expanded into a complete line of men's clothing still carried by his son and grandson in the Shavertown store.

Adam Hozempa, II, opened Adam's Clothes in the Back Mountain Shopping Center in 1958. Prior to that time he worked with his father in the Edwardsville Store.

Following the death of his father, Adam operated both stores for a while. The Edwardsville was part of the estate but the Shavertown store was his own business.

Adam is married to the former Anne Conrole of Kingston, who assists in the business on Saturdays and holidays.

Residents of Harveys Lake, Adam and Anne have two children, Beth, living in California, and Adam, III, who now manages the business most of the time since his father is semi-retired.

FAMILY BUSINESS-Adam, II and Adam, III, pose in their family store in the Back Mountain Shopping Center, Shavertown. They represent the second and third generation in the family business.

Both father and son are expert tailors and do all of the work on purchases made in their store.

Adam, III, resides with his wife, the former Patti Sheddon of Towanda, in Tunkhannock. A former teacher in the Abington Heights School District, he resigned to take over management of Adam's Clothes. His wife, Patti, still teaches in the Middle School of the Abington Heights School District.

Adam's Clothes is a one stop shopping center for both men and young men's clothing as well as the spot for jeans, jackets and tops for the younger set.

For the man with "discriminating taste", Adam's carries a complete line of clothing in brand names such as London Fog, Arrow, Haggard, Catalina, Hang Ten, Collegetown, Munsingwear, Hanes, and many others.

Young men and women will find jeans to suit their taste made by Wrangler, Levi or Lee. Woolrich outerwear, popular with young and old, is also carried by Adam's Clothes.

Adam's Clothes also carries a complete line of accessories, perfect as a gift to the "Man who cares". He has Buxton belts and wallets, Interwoven socks, Swank jewelry, Superba neckwear, men's colognes and after shave, caps, hats and numerous other items.

Back Mountain residents will enjoy shopping at Adam's Clothes-the store with 79 years of friendly, courteous and efficient service.

At our recent band sponsor's meeting, the following winning raffle tickets were drawn: 1st prize, a whole pig, Eleanor Miller, Mountaintop. 2nd prize, a turkey and ham, Clyde Oster, R.D.4, Dallas, and 3rd prize, a ham, to Eugenia Sweitzer, R.D.1, Dallas.

We want to thank everyone who helped make this project a success. As of Monday, July 20, the band is on vacation, so kids, that means vacationing from band rehearsals, not daily practice at home. Rehearsals will resume on Aug. 3rd. This is also the day to return uniforms that your youngsters have outgrown.

Nancy McCarroll will be at the school for your convenience.

Our picnic will be held at Hansons Park on August 8th. Chairman Jane Stepanik, is planning a big day for all of us. She has gotten a special price for the rides. Be sure to contact her for this bargain price.

Ways and Means chairman, Jack Davis, has announced upcoming projects for the fall. Details will follow in the near future. Remember, the success of any project depends on the workers. If you are willing to help in any way or if you have any new ideas on fund raising, please call Marlene Konopke.

As you know, the practice field is being reseeded. When vacation is over, field markings will be painted on the lawn in front of the school so the band can begin field show practice.

For you ladies who like bargains, we have scheduled a bus trip to vanity fair and other retail outlets in Reading. The date is August 15th. Everyone is invited to come along and purchase products at tremendous savings. There is a shop for everyone in the family. Enjoy the bus ride and Dutch treat supper at Leiby's Restaurant. Remember, it's not too early to purchase Christmas gifts. Call Marion Kasko or Edna Yatsco to reserve a seat on the bus. The cost per seat is $13.

A special "thank-you" to the post for allowing us to have this column in their paper. We hope it will be the tie that will bring the sponsors, band members and community supporters closer together.
