Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Emmanuel, Mr. and Mrs. James Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Propos of Trucksville and Dr. and Mrs. Lee Peters of Nanticoke.

Communism is the system whereby everybody shares equally in getting the short end of the stick. Capitalism is the system that makes longer sticks.

Dyanna Travers: A workaholic

BY GLEN HOFFMAN
Mrs. Traver of Harveys Lake has been spelling her first name for 23 years uniquely, D-y-a-n-n-a, because she is a unique individual who enjoys her retail work and her play at the Luzerne County Fall Fair to such a great extent that she could be called a "workaholic" and

With today's trend of two-income families, and increasing recreational facilities and activities, Dyanna is at the forefront, swinging into outdoor sports action to such an extent that arm and wrist braces are required. She also whirls into her job with such enthusiasm that many hours in a week she works for free.

"I work at Tupper's Sports Equipment in the Dallas Shopping Center," said Dyanna. "I put in a few free hours a week in addition to my regular working hours because I really enjoy anything that has to do with sports, even selling sports equipment. I also want to help out the owners (Jim Tupper of Trucksville and John Fowler of Dallas) and I enjoy working with the public."

HER WORK IS HER PLAY

Dyanna's loyalty and enthusiasm for her work is the stuff of an employer's dreams, and the answer to customer's prayers.

"I love sports so I love my work," explained Dyanna. "I play softball and volleyball during the summer, and during the winter I hunt and fish. My favorite season is fall because during this season I do everything; I play volleyball, softball, lift weights indoors to tone my muscles, and I start going out hunting and fishing."

After listening to Dyanna's admiration of sports and the outdoors, one feels like buying enough sports equipment to outfit a Pikes Peak expedition.

"I love hunting and fishing because I love the Back Mountain country," said Dyanna. "My husband and I like hunting in the woods because we feel free to do what we want to do—talking and enjoying life."

Her husband, Stephen, is also a devoted sports fan. He celebrated his 26th birthday August 29 by playing shortstop in a softball game.

WORK OVER PLAY

"I got into the sports business at Tupper's about one year ago by doing the window displays," recalled Dyanna. "I enjoyed the work immediately; when another part timer left us, I was excited to get her hours of work."

A recent softball game Dyanna played in could have gotten in the way of her work, but it did not.

"I broke my nose at that game," said Dyanna. "The appointment I had at the hospital to reset a bone falls on the same date of this year's Luzerne County Fall. So I said sorry! and postponed the hospital visit to work in the Tupper's Sports stand at the Fair."
