a generous amount of spaghetti sauce, then with cheese. Bake or broil until cheese is golden brown. Nothing tastes better than crispy chicken. Lynne's secret for tasty chicken is her oil coating for chicken. To two cups of cooking oil add pepper, then celery salt, onion salt and oregano as desired. This makes a great coating whether baking or grilling chicken. A native of New York, Lynne is originally from the Binghampton Area. A graduate of Union-

Endicott High School, Lynne received her bachelors degree at Lycoming College. She earned her Master of Divinity Degree from Boston University School of Theology in Boston, Massachusetts.

Lynne's husband Rev. Dr. Allan Cease, pastor of the Carverton United Methodist Charge comprised of Orange, Mt. Zion and Carverton United Methodist Churches, is a Back Mountain native. A graduate of Wyoming Association. Seminary and Lycoming College with a bachelors degree in history, Allan obtained his Master of Divinity Degree from Wesley Theological School, Washington, D.C. He earned his Doctor of Divinity from Drew University in Madison, N.J. Allan assumed pastorate of the Carverton Charge in 1979. He and Lynne were married in 1980. The couple has one son, Christian, who is four months old.

A member of Back Mountain East La Leche League and Positive Thinkers, Association, Lynne has many in-Sports like horseback riding, hiking, camping, swimming, and bicycling are enjoyed when possible. Having had extensive dance training, Lynne has taught tap, ballet, jazz and modern dance and has performed some liturgical dance.
