Paul Warchal, Dallas Junior High science instructor and his "elves" entertained students over the broadcast system during the holidays. Sata Warchal told of his journey from the North Pole to Japan where he picked up electronic games, and a sports car, (for himself) complete with tape deck and sun roof. He also told the students that Mrs. Claus couldn't make the trip because it would "interfere with her disco lessons," as she is in training as a night club dancer. He also gave guitar lessons. His elfin helpers include Terrell Smith, seated, and standing, Lori Timek, Karen Vloedman and Carla Orlando.
