Black Knights lose three

The young Black Knights of Lake-Lehman went to the courts three times last week and came up with three losses.

Seton Catholic took an early first quarter lead Saturday evening to defeat the Knights 55-46. Seton's Frank Tippet canned 18 points to lead his team to the win. He was followed by Mike Farrell who had 14 and J. Kosik who put in 10 points.

The Knights were able to score only seven points in the first quarter while their opponents tossed in 13. In the second quarter the Knights outscored Seton Catholic 13-12 but fell down in the opening period of the second half when they put in only three points while Seton chipped in 10.

The game was close at the end of the first half with the Eagles leading 25-20 but the Eagles came on strong in the third period to put the game on ice.

The Knights rallied in the final period but couldn't get enough to overtake their opponents. Joe Kishkill led the Knights with 17 points. Bill Bearde dumped in 16. Bishop Hoban took the Knights 61-49 Thursday paced by Mike Slaboski's 30 points, 26 from the floor and 4-4 from the foul line. G. Bukeavich also hit the double figures with 15 points in the exhibition game.

The Argents held a first half 28-17 lead and never fell behind throughout the contest.

Joe Kishkill led the Knights with 20 points tossing in 18 from the field and hitting 2-4 from the free stripe. Bill Bearde hit for 12 points, all of them from the field.

In Tuesday's game with Crestwood, the Comets outscored the Knights 24-8 in the first quarter to go on to win 71-54. The Knights hit 16-20 from the foul line and were outscored only 47-46 by the Comets in the final three quarters but they were unable to overcome the Comets first quarter lead.

The Comets Bob Rice paced his teammates with 20 points. Rich Dauber hit 16 and M. Lavigna tossed in 11.

Joe Kishkill paced Knights with 20 points hitting 16 of them in the second half. John Wendel put in 10.

This week the Knights play West Side Techn at home on Tuesday and G.A.R. on the Grenadiers court Friday.

Lady Knights lose first

Lake-Lehman Lady Knights lost their first game of the league season Saturday when Seton Catholic defeated them 60-48 led by M. Mozal who tossed in 17 points and M. Reddington 16.

The young Knights surprised the Seton team in the first half and led 28-27 at the end of the first half. The third quarter was a see-saw contest with Seton Catholic leading 40-38. It was the fourth quarter that gave Seton Catholic the win when Mozal controlled the defensive boards and dumped in nine of 11 free throws.

The Lady Knights had a balanced scoring game with Kim Fey hitting 12 points and Rhonda Hudzik and Tracy Turner scoring 10 each.

The Lady Knights were edged out 36-34 by Tunkhannock in an exhibition game Thursday night played on the local girls court.

Hudzik led the Lake-Lehman girls with 14 points, P. Solinski hit eight, Fey and Turner six each.

Tunkhannock's Kim Vermevlen was high scorer with 15 points.

Tracy Turner tossed 18 points to lead the Lake-Lehman girls to a 49-29 trouncing of Crestwood Tuesday afternoon.

Crestwood trailed by only two points at the end of the first quarter but the Lady Knights took over in the second and third quarters to put the game on ice.

Fey added 10 points to the Lady Knights scoring ad did freshman Rebecca Clifford.
