

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

1982

With the entire nation suffering economic setbacks, is there hope for the future? You bet, say many of Luzerne County's leading businesses and institutions. There is movement everywhere in the county - from the Economic Development Council of Northeastern Pennsylvania to the efforts of one individual, community leaders are constantly striving to increase and develop the economic and cultural traditions of their communities.