

Keeping Post-ed

On Thursday, April 1 at 8 p.m. at Mark's Old House Restaurant, Rt. 92 South, Tunkhannock, the Endless Mountains Kennel Club will host Pennsylvania Dog Law Officer Russel Carney as guest speaker. Carney was to make his presentation at the March meeting which was postponed because of foul weather. The topic for the evening will be current dog laws pertaining to the keeping of dogs, providing for the licensing of dogs and kennels, and the new legislation concerning the dog laws. The club extends its open invitation to any person interested in learning more about dogs, their care, management and training.

Review course slated

A review course for broadcasting engineers and other communications personnel interested in taking the Federal Communications Commission general class operator's permit test will begin Saturday, April 3, at the Pennsylvania State University Wilkes-Barre Campus. For more information about the F.C.C. license review course call the Continuing Education Department, Penn State Wilkes-Barre at 675-2171.

5th Miss Teen Pageant

Applications are now being accepted from girls all over the Eastern part of the Keystone State for the Fifth Annual Miss Teen Eastern Pennsylvania Pageant to be staged in Lancaster at the Holiday Inn Lancaster-North, Route 501, on Sunday, June 13. In making the announcement, Pageant Director, Mrs. Marie Sweeney, noted that, "Our Pageant does not impose a talent requirement and is open to all girls 14 thru 18, thus giving young women the opportunity of competing for a State or National Title." Miss Teen Eastern Pennsylvania is an official Miss Teen All American preliminary. All judging is on the basis of poise, personality, physical appearance and achievement in community and school activities. There is no "Talent" requirement. Applicants must be residents of Pennsylvania 14 thru 18 years of age as of December 31, 1982. Girls interested in competing for the title must request an application by mail from Miss Teen Pennsylvania Headquarters, 134 East Katherine Ave., Washington, Pa. 15301 by April 12.

The girl chosen as Miss Teen Pennsylvania will represent the Eastern part of the Keystone State in the Miss Teen All American Pageant, Nov. 18 through Nov. 21, at the luxurious Konover Hotel on world-famous Miami Beach. Among her many prizes, Miss Teen All American will be awarded $5,000 in Savings Bonds and a fur jacket. The current Miss Teen Eastern Pennsylvania, Susan Knauss of North Wales, who was a finalist to Miss Teen All American 1982, will be present to crown her successor.

Brownie Troop 651 of Lehman Twp. has been working hard on conserving water for their families and townships. They have made individual character billboards and displayed them as human billboards during Girl Scout Week at Boscov's in W.B. They will receive personal recognition from the Governor and will receive a water conservation badge. Brownies are 1st row, Jenny Libinski, Bridget Hozempa, Sherry Hoover, Tammy Hoover, Linda Grey, Noell Brooks; 2nd row, Kristin Organ, Reagan Bombeck, Luann Naugle, Barbie Campbell, Stephanie Swartz and Kellee Flanley.

Library visitors 'special'

BY NANCY S. KOZEMCHAK

We consider ourselves very fortunate! We will have some very special visitors with us for the next four weeks. Samuel Whiskers, Jeremy Fisher, Timmy Tiptoes, Mrs. Tiggy Winkle; just to name a few. These, of course, are all names connected with Beatrix Potter, who has made them so popular. Miss Frances Linskill of Oak Hill has a collection of these figurines and has again graciously allowed us to borrow some of them for our display case. We are especially pleased to have them in the library over the Easter holidays. Miss Linskill has visited Miss Potter's home in England, which was used for many of the illustrations in the story books. The most famous, Peter Rabbit, is here also and he has now been in existence for 89 years. Peter is standing in front of a brand new copy of the book about him and is definitely the center of attraction. The library is very happy to have received a brand new set of the 23 volume Peter Rabbit series. Stop in and meet Little Pig Robinson, Old Mr. Brown, Squirrel Nutkin and the other figurines on display, tucked in nicely with some fresh green Easter straw. Thanks, Miss Linskill, the display is a delight to behold!

On April 14, children's story hour movie day, Mrs. Nancy Hadley, a reading specialist from Syracuse, N.Y., now living in Shavertown, will present a talk for the parents. Her topic will be "Improving Reading Readiness", tips and techniques. Guests are welcome.

Mrs. Crump called to remind me that preparations for the book booth at the library auction are beginning to happen. Priscilla Reese Liput will be co-chairman of the booth with Mrs. Crump as chairman. The auction will be held in July and we remind you that books will be accepted at the library, either for the book booth at the auction or for the library itself, any time any time the library is open. Chairman for Auction '82 is Joseph Killen.

New books at the library: "Beloved Son" by Steve Allen is a story of the Jesus cults. The author has done a ten year study on the religious communes and the book is a result of that study. The book presents a survey of a heartbreaking controversy, fair-minded and objective.

"Thy Brother's Wife" by Andrew Greeley is a novel of penetrating vision on one of the most threatening crisis in the life of a family. The author explores the passions of two brothers, one a priest and one a senator, who, each in his own way, love the same woman.

Additional leisure time means more full and happy hours to the registered users of the Back Mountain Memorial Library. They look forward to following exciting hobbies, rounding out their education, keeping up on present-day issues, and reading for fun, pleasure, and profit. You'll never be bored if you make full use of your public library!

Blood drive

There will be a blood drive on April 5, from 11:45 to 5:45 at the Dallas Township Elementary School.

The Blood Drive is sponsored by the Back Mountain Blood Council.
