Black Knights pick up first win

Lake-Lehman's Black Knights nipped the Meyers Mohawks 3-2 Saturday, at Barney Farm field to pick up their first win to put them at 1-1 in the Wyoming Valley

Baseball Conference. Joe Kishkill did the pitching for the Knights and held the usually hard hitting Mohawks to only five hits. In defeating the Mohawks Kishkill walked only two at the plate but didn't strike out one hitter.

The Knights went in front 1-0 in the third inning and took a 3-0 lead before the Mohawks scored two runs in the sixth inning. Kishkill did not let up and pitched tight in the seventh to hold the Knights 3-2 lead.

The Knights scored only four hits in earning the win, one of those a homerun by Kishkill.

The Mohawks Dave Amory and Joe Irwin had two hits each to account for four of the five Meyers hits.

The Knights dropped their opening game on Thursday, 6-3, to the Blue Knights of Wyoming Seminary. Mark Antinnes and relief pitcher H. Louchie together gave up only four hits while their teammates piled up a six run count in the first three innings.

The Black Knights Tracey Slocum started on the mound and went three innings before Michaels took over. Slocum, credited with the loss, struck out two and gave up five walks. Michaels struck out two and walked only one. Kishkill drove out a three base hit for the Black Knights.

Dallas nips Wyoming 7-6

Coach Jack Wolensky's Dallas Mountaineers edged the Wyoming Warriors 7-6 Thursday. Jerry Rollman's key hit in the seventh scored Steve Federici and broke the 6-6 tie. Rollman came in as a designated hitter with two out in the seventh. Clarke Lewis held the Warriors in the bottom half of the seventh to go all the way for Dallas. Lewis fanned six and walked seven.

The Mountaineers took a 1-0 lead in the first inning, scored two runs in the second, and another single in the third. With the score tied at 4-4, the Mountaineers scored two runs in the fourth inning to lead 6-4.

The Warriors scored a run in the fifth and another in the sixth inning to tie the score at 6-6 going into the top half of the seventh.

In the seventh inning, Federici hit a single with two out, then Paul Brace walked before Rollman came in and hit his game-breaking single.

Ken Houts was the losing pitcher for Wyoming.

The Mountaineers pounded West Side Tech 12-1, Wednesday, behind Steve Thomas' two-hitter. Sophomore Dave Thomas went 3-for-3 and had 5 RBI's, with one of his hits a three run triple. Mike Ramirez also went 3-for-3 and had two RBI's. Ramirez, Ken Adams and Paul Brace each hit doubles.

Wolensky's Mountaineers opened the season on Monday with a double-header win, taking Seton Catholic 15-4 in the opening game and defeating Bishop Hoban 14-9 in the second game.

Dallas collected 13 hits off Seton Catholic and scored eight runs in the first inning before Seton Catholic defense scored an out. Steve Bestwick drove out a three run homerun. Dave Thomas and Jerry Rollman each hit one. Dave Burnaford, Brace, Thomas and Grabenstetter knocked out doubles.

In the Bishop Hoban game, Rollman drove out a three run homer to break a 9-9 tie with the Argents in the bottom of the fifth inning. The Mounts collected 10 hits with Thomas, Bestwick and Federici leading the attack. Lewis was credited with the win in the Hoban game. Jim Lord took the win in the Seton Catholic game.

Lady Knights edge V W

The Lady Knights edged Valley West 3-2 Friday behind the two hit pitching of Tracey Turner on the Knights diamond.

Turner hurled the full game for Lake-Lehman striking out seven and giving up three walks.

Turner also knocked out two singles and Rebecca Clifford collected the other hit for the Lady Knights. They were held to three hits by Spartan hurler Laurie Crawford. The win gave Turner 3-0 record.

Turner took the mound Thursday afternoon and pitched a no hit game against Wyoming Seminary to pace the Black Knights to a 12-2 trouncing of the Blue Knights.

Turner helped at the bat by driving out a triple. Rhonda Hudzik and Kim Fey drove out doubles and Donna Ide and Jill Solinski hit singles.

The Lady Knights took a 3-0 lead in the first inning but Seminary scored two runs in the top half of the second on two walks who came in on an over-thrown.

Turner fanned five and walked four in picking up the win.

The Lady Knights walloped Hanover 16-4

Tuesday afternoon on the Hawkeyes field behind Turner's four hit pitching and her 3-for-3 at the plate. One of Turner's hits was a triple while Diction hit a double.

Turner struck out five and walked six in collecting her second win of the season. Clifford and Pam Solinski had three hits each. Jill Solinski and Hudzik hit two each.

The Lady Knights exploded for eight runs in the first inning to put the game away. Jill Lapasky relieved Turner and struck out three giving up no walks.

Dallas student makes Crusaders net team

Blair Jennings of Dallas is on the Susquehanna University men's tennis roster this spring. He is a returning letterman.

The Crusader netmen, with a 2-2 record in the early going, are hoping to rebound from last year's disappointing 4-8 season.

Jennings, a sophomore economics major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore of 67 Grandview Ave., Dallas, and Roger Jennings Jr. of Atlanta, Ga. He is a graduate of Wyoming Seminary Day School.
