Knights trounce O'Reilly; lose to Wyoming Sem

Lake-Lehman Knights scored eight runs in the third inning to guarantee their 14-3 win over Bishop O'Reilly last Thursday. Pitcher Al Michaels struck out four and walked four as he picked up the easy win. He allowed the Queensmen only five hits while his Knights collected 10, one of them a triple by T. Zielen. T. Cadwalader had 2-3 at the plate.

Tom Davis drove in two runs on a double and Joe Kishkill drove in two more on his single in the third.

Wyoming Seminary scored five runs in the seventh inning to break a 12-12 game Wednesday at the Knights field, and go on to win 17-12.

The Black Knights hit Seminary 20-18 but disputed calls and misplays by the local Knights gave Seminary the win. The Blue Knights relief pitcher Mark Ambrose also turned in a fine performance.

Kalish, Kishkill, Martin and Cadwalader hit doubles for the Black Knights. Yoniski drove out two doubles and T. Zielen knocked out two doubles and a triple.

In the makeup game with Nanticoke on Tuesday, the Trojans won 6-5 in the bottom of the ninth when their pitcher Brian Gorski hit a single to score base runner and give his Trojans the win. The game was a makeup for the game called the week before because of darkness. The score in that game was 2-2 in the ninth.

The Trojans were trailing in Tuesday's game 5-4 when Distasio hit a sacrifice fly to send a runner across the plate and tie the game at 5-5 to send it into the extra innings.

Chris Boyle was credited with the loss for the Knights.

Ciccarelli sparks Dallas girls to win

Sheri Ciccarelli led off with singles in both the first and second innings to spark the Dallas girls to an 8-4 win Thursday over Bishop Hoban. The Lady Mounta scored six of their runs in the first two innings, the decisive scores on Argent errors.

Ciccarelli also scored two runs, on in the first on Debbie Shone's double and one in the second on an error. Kathy Walsh and Tammie Sutton knocked in two runs in the first inning on singles and Theresa Baseski batted in a run with a sacrifice. Shone and Baseski also hit doubles in the game.

Debbie Shone was credited with her first loss of the season in five games allowing only five hits.

The Trojanettes Debbie Wengryn was credited with the win, giving up only five hits and connecting for two hits to score three runs.

Shone, Ciccarelli, Kim Reese, Banks and Morgan collected the hits for the Dallas girls.

Chris Dombek was the losing pitcher on Tuesday as Wyoming Seminary handed the Lady Mounts a 13-8 loss. Ciccarelli came in to relieve Dombek in the sixth inning and the Blue Knights Kate Ward hit a grand slam homerun to clinch the game, by breaking the 8-8 tied game. Dombek fanned five and walked eight before leaving the game. Hitting for the Lady Mounts were Ciccarelli, Reese, Sutton, Banks, Dombek, Baseski 2-4, and Morgan 3-4.
