New Goods Committee Named

Joe Killeen, chairman of this year's Back Mountain Library Auction has named Wayne cook, Judy Menapace and Mickey Aicher as the New Goods Committee. The committee has already begun soliciting the more than 250 merchants in the Back Mt. Area for a contribution either in cash or a new item from their store. The item is priced by the merchant and is auctioned off during the auction. "We are really looking forward to soliciting this: said Judy Menapace. "Although it's still a little early to make any forecasts, we usually do very well. The merchants are very aware of the auction and are willing to help. This year things should go particularly well since there are quite a few new merchants in the area."
