Holy Name Society holds family dinner

St. John's Holy Name Society of Miller St., Luzerne, recently held their Annual Family Breakfast on Father's Day. The affair was held at the Knights of Columbus Home on Main St., Luzerne. Invocation and benediction was given by Rev. Edward Shoback, moderator of the Holy Name Society and pastor of St. John Nepomucene.

Master of ceremonies was Joseph Kurpis.

Main speaker was Robert Alexander, Professor of government in politics at King's College, who spoke on "Sanctifying Life". Professor Alexander said that we all have a place and job in life to do and as long as we do it to the best of our ability and with the idea of helping others, we can sanctify our places in life. He said that we also bring happiness to others, bring happiness to ourselves. Life without God is life with despair.

His talk was well received by everyone in attendance and more of us should take heed to this fine saying.

This affair was also a farewell to the Sisters of St. Methodius, as St. John Nepomucene School will be closed.

Joseph Voytek, president of the Senior Holy Name Society, thanked everyone for their assistance and thanked the Sisters along with Rev. Shoback for their fine work at the school and wished them well in their new school.
