Levitski speaks to Rotary

ROTARY CLUB—John M. Levitski, Public Information Specialist for PP&L's Susquehanna Steam Electric Station near Berwick, was the speaker of the evening at the weekly meeting of the Dallas Rotary Club. Levitski invited the club to hold one of its meetings at the nuclear plant and to tour the facility as part of the program. Presenting Levitski a thank-you Dallas Rotary notebook is Ralph Levitski, past president of Dallas Rotary, now assistant program chairman for the 1982-83 Rotary year.

Back Country Briefs

Women of East Dallas United Methodist Church have completed work on a beautiful quilt that will be sold to the highest bidder at the annual Fall Festival to be held Saturday, Sept. 11, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the church. There will be something to satisfy everyone's wants and needs including plants, produce, a bake sale, refreshments, games and a flea market. Those desiring a table at the flea market are asked to call either 675-4942 or 675-3010. Carol Eyet is chairlady of the Fall Festival with Robert Eyet as co-chairman.

This is the weekend for the first annual benefit bazaar and auction of the young Northmoreland Township Volunteer Fire Company. Friday evening, the winner of the 'Miss Northmoreland Volunteer Fire Company Queen' will be announced after a parade of fire companies and other floats, followed by a fireworks display and music for dancing by the Country Troubadours under the direction of Ron Schoonover. Auction will be held Saturday starting at 10 a.m. Charles Goble, fire company president, and Rick Farr, fire chief, extend an invitation to all Back Mountain folk to attend the benefit affair.

A large number of friends and relatives attended the open house held Sunday afternoon at their home honoring Don and Gloria Rought of Centermoreland on their silver wedding anniversary. Flowers on the altar for Sunday morning's worship service in Centermoreland United Methodist Church were placed there in their honor.

Trustees of Eat Dallas UM Church and the administrative council will meet Wednesday evening, Sept. 1, at 7 at the church. Administrative Council of Centermoreland UM Church will meet Thursday evening, Sept. 2, at 7:30 at the church.

Highlight of the Family Night picnic held Friday at the Hank Rowlands residence in Centermoreland proved to be a shower for Bill and Sheila Weidner and their new daughter, Rebecca, who was born earlier this month in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, Kingston.

Friends of Mrs. Layiah Martin will be glad to learn she came home Saturday from Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, Kingston, where she had undergone foot surgery. Mrs. Alverta Barnard, mother of Mrs. Michael Apaliski, is a medical patient in Room 477 at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Jeffrey Howell, son of Rev. and Mrs. James Howell of Centermoreland, enrolled last week as a freshman at the Baptist Bible College at Clarks Summit.

Mr. and Mrs. Laird Murtoff and daughters Penny and Kim of Gardeners, Pa. were Wednesday guests of Rev. and Mrs. James Howell, Centermoreland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowlands hosted a large Family Night picnic at

Celebration Sunday at Huntsville Church

On Aug. 29, the Huntsville United Methodist Church will participate in what has been designated "Celebration Sunday". There will be a special litany based on events which the church has had in the past year, a special message for children and the music for the service will feature soloist, T. Doyle Leverett. Leverett is well-known in the community for his performing and directing at the Music Box Playhouse Theater in Swoyersville. He has also sung in oratorios, is soloist with the First Presbyterian Church choir in Wilkes-Barre, and has performed with the Masterworks Chorale. A special invitation is extended to all persons to worship. The service begins at 9:30 a.m. Rev. Harriet L. Santos is pastor.
