Cynthia M. Steinkirchner

Steinkirchner recital features arias

Cynthia M. Steinkirchner, soprano, will perform a senior voice recital accompanied by Paul S. Kenyon, Oct. 23, at 3 p.m. in the Steadman Theatre, Mansfield State College, Mansfield.

Featured arias included in the performance will be "Ain't it a Pretty Night" from Carlisle Floyd's "Susannah", "Ach Ise Fuh's" from Mozart's "Die Zauberflote," and "Glitter and be Gay" from Leonard Bernstein's "Candide".

Miss Steinkirchner has appeared as a soloist with the Mansfield College Community Orchestra and Choir under the direction of Cyril Stretansky in the performance of Beethoven's

Mass in C Major and has also been a featured soloist for the MSC Concert Choir and the Mansfieldians.

She is the 1982 recipient of the Janice Baker Memorial Award, which is presented annually to the outstanding female vocalist at Mansfield State College.

She is the student of Mrs. Kathryn Dyek, Mansfield, and has studied with Charles Bressler and Gary Magby both of New York City.

Cynthia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Steinkirchner of 20 Burndale Road, Dallas.

A reception will be held immediately following the recital.

Mountain Grange 567 members of Carverton will hold a benefit rummage sale Saturday at the Grange Hall, Bodle and West Eighth Streets, Carverton. The sale will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Stanley Krzanowski, grange master, states many of the items to be offered for sale are antiques that should be in demand. Refreshments will be available during the sale.

At its meeting Monday evening in the Grange Hall, Grange members discussed plans for their general election noon and evening dinners to be served on election day, Nov. 2. Proceeds of the rummage sale and election day dinners will be used for improvements for the Grange Hall.
