Knights down Comets for homecoming victory

TOUCHDOWN PASS—Knight John Williams goes back to throw his 22-yard touchdown pass to Bob Miller in the end zone during Saturday's game with the Crestwood Comets. The Knights won 22-14.

Lake-Lehman Knights added to the success of the school's homecoming day last Saturday by defeating Crestwood 22-14.

The Knights led 8-0 at halftime by way of a 67 yard drive in six plays and Tracy Slocum's 44 yard run for a touchdown at the 5:52 mark of the first quarter. QB John Williams went around the right and went over the goal line for a two point conversion.

In the third quarter Crestwood's Matt Lavigna recovered a Knight fumble on the Knights 10-yard line and took it in for a score. The Comets QB Mike Kish hit Bernie Kindler for two points to tie it up at 8-8.

It looked like a tied game until Williams connected with Bob Miller in the end zone for a 22 yard score. Williams ran the ball over for two points to give his Knights a 16-8 lead with 3:15 remaining in the game.

Crestwood was unable to put together a drive and on Lavigna's punt the winds held it to midfield. Aided by a penalty, Q. Wiczak ran the ball 54 yards for a touchdown. Williams attempt for two points failed.

Crestwood continued to fight and Kish connected with Todd Dickinson for a 32 yard pass to the Knights' 44 yard line.

Next, Kish threw to Lavigna on the left, who threw back to Kish. Then Kish threw a 36 yard bomb to Randy Hurst for a first down and goal at the Knights eight yard line. Two plays later, Kish hit Mike Peterson for the score. The Comets tried for two but failed.

Knight Coach Mike Kirk believed that the Knights week layoff hurt them in the first three quarters of the game. He said he knew Crestwood was a team who could explode at any time as they proved in their final drive of the game.

The Knights will play Nanticoke Friday night at Nanticoke.

HOLDING THE COMETS—Knights Que Walczak (38) and Eric Masters (62) stop the Comets near the goal line taking out Crestwood's Mike Peterson (81) and Ken Byler (20).

Local water skiers place in Nationals

Two local barefoot skiers scored well among 115 of the best barefoot water skiers in the nation at St. Leo College, St. Leo, Fla. in the 1982 Nationals, Aug. 27, 28 and 29.

Jack Davis, Harveys Lake, assistant wrestling coach at Clarion State College and graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, captured 7th overall in the barefoot skiing tournament. Davis had an outstanding fourth place finish in barefoot ski-jumping followed by seventh place in wake slalom and 15th in both barefoot start methods and barefoot tricks. The men's I Division had 25 entrants. Residents, who hear Jack's skier boat zooming through the waters of Harveys Lake at 6 a.m., will know that he's working toward earning National titles for the folks at home.

Seven year old Chrissy Dersheimer, Harveys Lake, recognized as the nation's youngest female barefoot competitor, made proud grandparents of Eric and Mary Weber of Harveys Lake. Chrissy lives at Cypress Gardens, Fla., but her family roots are at Harveys Lake.

Her father, Dave Dersheimer, was known as the first local to master skiing barefoot. That was in 1964, then Dave went on to become a Cypress Gardens show skier. It appears Chrissy is following in his "bare" footsteps. Chrissy took third place in barefoot tricks..and wake slalom.

Mounts fall apart in second quarter

"In the first quarter, we were in the game. The kids played the way they practiced all week. Thomas took the 37 yard pass from Steve Federici and ran it for 31 yards to get to the six yard line. On the next play, Matt Moran took it over for the score on our first possession. We thought our kids could do it," said Dallas Coach Ron Rybak, after the Mountaineers 35-14 loss to Pittston.

"Our kids held together until the Patriots scored. After that they seemed to fall apart. The second quarter was disaster. Believe it or not, they practiced against all those plays of the Patriots. They made too many mistakes mentally, offensively and defensively.

"They just didn't play well after that first quarter. This week, the only thing we can do is make some changes. I've been looking at the films and I've been seeing the same ones making the same mistakes each game so it's time for a change."

The Patriots scored their first touchdown just as the second quarter started. QB Carl DeLuca threw his first of three touchdown passes in that quarter and he ran for the fourth score. He hit Ralph Herbert for the first score from the 19 yard line and Dave Demroo kicked the extra point.

DeLuca ran the ball in from the one for the second Patriot score but the try for extra point failed. The third Patriots TD was DeLuca's one yard pass to Nick Bisconti but the try for two points failed. DeLuca connected with Sam Falcone for a 65 yard touchdown pass and Demroo kicked the extra point just as the half ended.

Late in the third quarter, the Patriots scored their final touchdown when DeLuca hit Nick Bisconti with an 18 yard pass and Demroo kicked the extra point. They added two more points when Steve Federici, who was injured, was sacked near the goal line and the ball went out of the end zone for a safety.

The Mountaineers added another touchdown to their score when Bernie Walsh replaced Federici at quarterback and hit Ray Piekanski for a 33 yard TD. Walsh ran for two points on the conversion.

The Mountaineers host Wyoming Valley West at home Saturday, at 2 p.m.
